City Council accepts resignation from police chief

By Kurt Menk
Editor

The Arlington City Council, during its regular meeting on Monday night, Oct. 17, unanimously approved a motion to accept the resignation of Police Chief Cory Danner. His last day of employment for the Arlington Police Department will be Sunday, Nov. 6.

City Council members Michelle Batcher, Jim Heiland, James Jaszewski, Jennifer Nuesse and Galen Wills

all voted in favor of the motion.

Danner has accepted a position with the Worthington Police Department. His first day of employment there will be Monday, Nov. 7.

Danner has served as the Arlington police chief since June 9, 2014.

Danner and his wife, Missy, have four children. They are Alivia, 12, Josie, 9, Kyle, 7, and Carly, 4.

In a related note, City Administrator Liza Donabauer reported that the Police Committee will meet in early November to discuss the job description for the position and name an interim police chief.

The City Council plans to advertise for the open position by mid November. Candidate interviews will begin in January. The goal is to have a new police chief hired by the middle of March 2017.

The City Council will ask the Sibley County Sheriff's Department to partner in the hiring process.

New Squad Car

The City Council unanimously approved a motion to accept the low bid of $25,754 from Wolf Motors, Jordan, to purchase a new Ford Interceptor utility vehicle.

The new vehicle will replace the 2008 squad car.

With equipment installed, the total cost for the new vehicle will be $44,117.86.

The City Council had earmarked $44,142 in its Capital Improvement Project (CIP) fund for a replacement vehicle.

Brau Motors, Arlington, had submitted a bid of $26,797.17 for a Chevy Caprice. With equipment installed, the total cost for that vehicle would have been $46,159.26.

The City Council did struggle over buying a new squad vehicle out of town rather than locally.

City Council members, however, favored the Ford Interceptor Utility over the Chevrolet Caprice because the police chief and officers stated that the Caprice was smaller than the current vehicle and the current vehicle poses safety issues due to their height, the amount of equipment they wear and the car's size.

In addition, the city will save over $2,000 between the lowest bid and the next lowest bid.

Preliminary tax levy reflects a 3.1% hike in City of Green Isle

By Kurt Menk
Editor

The Green City Council, during a recent meeting, adopted a resolution to approve the preliminary 2016 tax levy for collection in 2017.

The preliminary 2016 tax levy for collection in 2017 will increase from $539,847 to $556,681. This reflects an approximate 3.1 percent increase.

Mayor Dale ZumBerge and City Council members Shawn Harms, Brian Oelfke, John Schauer and Mark Wentzlaff all voted in favor of the resolution.

The City Council initially discussed a five percent increase, but decided to lower it.

Since the city streets are in good shape, the City Council plans on minimal increases for street improvements the next few years.

The City Council can only reduce the preliminary amount before the final tax levy is adopted in December.

The City Council, in a related item, will hold a Truth In Taxation public hearing in early December.

School Board votes 5-1 for strategic planning proposal

By Amy Newsom
Correspondent

The Sibley East School Board, during its regular monthly meeting on Monday night, Oct. 17, voted 5-1 and approved a motion to approve a $2,500 strategic planning proposal from the South Central Service Cooperative (SCSC).

SCSC representative Ed Waltman said it had been four years since Sibley East went through the strategic planning process and felt it was important to revisit it about every three years.

SCSC will work with Dr. Jeff Olson who represents the Minnesota School Boards Association (MSBA).

Waltman said the purpose of strategic planning is to "help districts plan for the future." The strategic planning process will involve on-line surveying of community members, students, and Sibley East staff to find out what is working and what needs to be improved. SCSC will hold three in-district meetings with the strategic planning committee, present a final comprehensive report, and follow-up with the School Board after a year to see what progress was made.

School Board member Nathan Kranz voted against the strategic planning saying "we have a lot on our plate right now" and thought maybe they could do it in a year or two.

School Board Member Laura Reid felt that now was an "opportune time" to do it with the new buildings.

Waltman and Olson said the strategic planning process takes about 10 weeks. They would begin surveying at the end of January 2017, with strategic planning committee meetings in March and April, and finally provide the School Board with a report in April or May.

Phase II

The School Board approved the finish selections for phase II of the high school/middle school building project in Arlington.

Phase II includes band, media, choir, art, special education and some bathrooms. Classroom carpets will be in school colors with three of the classroom walls white with one darker accent color. In the hallways, the peach glazed tile will stay, walls will be painted gray, and lockers painted charcoal. The media room will have teal carpet and paint. The band room will change from carpet flooring to polished concrete.

No School

The School Board revised the school calendar and designated Jan. 2, 2017, as a no school day for students and staff.

Sibley East Superintendent Jim Amsden said that by statute they could not have school on Jan. 2. It had originally been included in the school calendar because of the late school start due to construction. Amsden said that they will have to add a staff work day to the calendar, but will leave that date flexible to fit in with the construction schedule. Amsden also stated that as long as they do not have too many snow days they should not have to add that day back to the students' school calendar.

The School Board will canvass the general election results during a special meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 15. The School Board will hold its next monthly at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 22.

Speed limit along Highway 5 from Gaylord to Highway 212 to increase to 60 miles per hour

Four two-lane highways in south central Minnesota will have speed limit increases from 55 miles per hour to 60 miles per hour by Friday, Oct. 21.

Locally, one of those sections will include Highway 5 from Highway 19 at Gaylord to Highway 212.

The other sections of highways with studies include:

- Highway 60 from Highway 14 to Highway 13 at Waterville
- Highway 68 from Morgan to Highway 4
- Highway 109 from Highway 169 at Winnebago to Highway 22 at Wells. The speed limit is effective when the new signs are posted. Existing stop conditions or urban environments are used for the transition in speeds so that motorists will see a posted sign.

"A speed study gives MnDOT the opportunity to review speed limits on 55 mph state highways in our area and identify those that can support a higher speed limit without compromising safety," said Scott Thompson, MnDOT traffic engineer.

The increases are based on a traffic and engineering investigation of each location, which looks at past crash history, physical attributes of the highway such as shoulder widths and access points, and what speed drivers are currently driving. The increases are the result of a 2014 legislative mandate for MnDOT to study posted speed limits on all two-lane state highways and make recommendations.

In some cases, the study results in the speed limit staying the same. In south central Minnesota, approximately 600 miles were studied between 2014 and 2015.

Of the roads studied, approximately 275 miles will be increased. Several more south central two-lane highways have the fieldwork complete and await final data analysis. These roads could have speed changes coming as early as this winter.

Minnesota has about 7,000 miles of two-lane roads that will be studied between 2014 and 2019. A 2014 report on the evaluation of speed limits can be found at www.mndot.gov/speed/.

RS Fiber Open House In Green Isle

Over 100 Green Isle residents attended a Renville-Sibley (RS) Fiber Cooperative open house at the Green Isle Community School on Wednesday night, Oct. 12. The open house gave Green Isle residents an opportunity to learn more about the RS Fiber services. Scott and Joann Beneke visited with an RS Fiber representative during the open house. A free dinner was catered by the Green Isle Lions Club. A similar open house was held in the City of New Auburn one night earlier, according to RS Fiber officials. Both towns are now built out. Residences and businesses will be hooked up after they sign up.

Cursive handwriting discussed at recent SE School Board meeting

By Amy Newsom
Correspondent

Elementary Principal Mari Lu Martens updated the School Board on the cursive curriculum at the regular monthly School Board meeting on Monday night, Oct. 17.

Students are taught cursive in third grade at Sibley East. Martens checked with seven area schools and found that they also teach cursive in the third grade.

It was the consensus of the School Board to keep some type of cursive curriculum.

School Board member Laura Reid stated that "a combination [of printing, cursive, and data entry] is healthy."

School Board Chairperson Brian Brandt asked if something could be sent home to parents so students could practice cursive.

School Board member Nathan Kranz would like to see cursive handwriting on the agenda again. He felt it was up to the School Board to determine the type of curriculum to use, and the amount of school time that should be dedicated to cursive handwriting.

Ratio

At the beginning of the meeting on October 17, Kranz requested to have the teacher to total school employee ratio.

Kranz stated that he had checked on other schools and found that Sibley East had "the worst percentage of teachers to total employees."

Brandt stated that it may be because Sibley East has a high number of paraprofessionals.

Martens stated that Sibley East has a lot of special needs students from the Glencoe-Silver Lake School District and each one requires a paraprofessional.

Brandt said that the School Board could review it as an informational item on the next agenda.

For additional School Board news from the regular monthly meeting, please refer to News Briefs on page 2 in this week's edition of the Arlington Enterprise.

The School Board will canvas the general election results during a special meeting at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 15. The School Board will hold its next monthly at 5 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 22.

AFD responds to silo fire south of Arlington

By Kurt Menk
Editor

The Arlington Fire Department responded to a silo fire at the Howard Schneider farm about four miles south of Arlington at 2:02 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 12, according to Arlington Fire Chief John Zaske.

The silo sustained moderate damage, Zaske said. The fire department used approximately 2,200 gallons of water at the scene.

The fire department was on the scene for six hours, according to Zaske.

The fire department, he said, split into two groups that evening. One group fought the fire while the other group delivered meals around the fire district in conjunction with its annual Bring Home Fire Safety event.

Policy for letters to the editor before the General Election

Our View: Letters to the editor are always welcome

The Arlington Enterprise again reminds all readers about our policy for letters to the editor prior to the general election on Tuesday, Nov. 8.

Our newspaper will still accept regular letters to the editor for publication in our Thursday, Oct. 27 edition of the Arlington Enterprise. Writers are reminded that letters cannot exceed 500 words.

Our newspaper, for the Nov. 3 edition, however, will not publish any letters that bring up new ideas in connection with any candidate or ballot question.

During that week, our newspaper will only print letters that respond to specific statements that have already been made in previous letters or opinion columns.

People who wish to write a letter must state the name of the writer, the date of the publication that the letter or opinion column appeared and specifically point out the statement and which paragraph it appeared.

This is only fair because people would not have an opportunity to respond to letters and opinion columns with new ideas prior to the general election.

Thanks to all of the readers who have submitted letters and continue to read our opinion page.

Did you hear about the TV weatherman who, despite his training and sparkling credentials, ran into a terrible unlucky streak?

He became something of a local joke. The town's newspaper began keeping a record of his predictions. A year later, the paper reported that he'd been wrong almost three hundred times in a single year.

Unable to handle the pressure, the station manager fired him.

So the meteorologist moved far away and applied for another job as a TV weatherman. When he got to the question on the application about why he had left his last job, he wrote, "The climate didn't agree with me."

The Smiths were proud of their family tradition. Their ancestors had come to America on the Mayflower. They had included Senators and Wall Street wizards.

They decided to compile a family history, a legacy for their children and grandchildren. They hired a fine author. Only one problem arose - how to handle that great-uncle George, who was executed in the electric chair.

The author assured the family he could handle the story as tactfully as possible and was given the go-ahead to write the book.

Letter To The Editor

SE School Board not worried about raising taxes

To The Editor,

I would like to make a point regarding recent Sibley East business. I find it morally repugnant that the other five School Board members voted to convert voter approved referendum authority to Board approved referendum authority. This will raise taxes only an extra $77,257 for the 2016-2017 school year. But believe me they will not stop there in the future. This comes on top of the recent $43 million new school taxes.

Two years ago the School Board did not vote for this Board approved referendum authority. In September 2014 the School Board said it was concerned about the impact on property taxes. This was before the $43 million bond was approved. Brian Brandt and Missy Weber were on the School Board at that time. This does not make any sense. The School Board was worried about the impact on property taxes before the $43 million bond was approved. Now that a new elementary school is going up in Gaylord and the Arlington school is under renovation the Board has no problem raising property taxes. When Ms. Weber ran for the School Board four years ago she wanted to investigate renovating the school buildings instead of building a new school. In her answers to questions Ms. Weber said many people were having financial difficulties. She also said the School Board should consider the poverty level and the number of Medicare age people in our school district.

Mr. Brandt and Ms. Weber have some explaining to do to us taxpayers before the vote on Nov. 8.

Minnesota is facing a healthcare crisis

By Kurt Daudt
MN House Speaker

Minnesota is facing a health care crisis. Hundreds of thousands of families will see health insurance costs increase by 50 percent or more next year. Thousands more will lose their plan or access to their doctor through no fault of their own. Greater Minnesota is hit especially hard; 45 counties — all outside the seven county Metro area — will have just two insurers offering health plans.

Irresponsible enrollment caps approved by Governor Dayton's Department of Commerce mean many Minnesotans will effectively have just one option. This creates difficult choices for Minnesota families: race through a broken MNsure website, spending hours on the phone seeking help from a dysfunctional call center in Illinois, while trying to enroll before one plan meets its cap, or wait and enroll in an uncapped narrow network plan with a 67 percent premium increase.

An even tougher choice: enroll in a plan that will eat up your family's budget, or go with lesser or no coverage and pay a steep federal penalty — a minimum fine of $2,000 for a family of four.

How did we get here? How is it that the individual and family insurance market, which has withstood decades of changes in healthcare delivery and utilization, stands at the brink of collapse just a few short years after relative financial health?

This mess is a result of MNsure and federal mandates that destroyed states' ability to design an insurance market that met the needs of its people. This was particularly devastating to Minnesota, which was a national leader in programs to insure low-income and high risk families. Democrats at the state and federal level rammed through MNsure and Obamacare without a single Republican vote.

Governor Dayton began crafting

MNsure over five years ago. IT contracts worth millions of dollars were signed without proper vetting, and partisans were put in charge of a massive buildout. Republican concerns were largely ignored — even silenced during legislative debate — when questions were raised about the improbability of vast promises made by Legislative Democrats.

You don't hear them anymore, but you may remember those promises from 2013: MNsure would be the Travelocity of health insurance, families would save $500 a year, small businesses would save thousands.

It's important to remember those promises because Democrats' primary solution to the current crisis is to keep pouring money into MNsure — at least $400,000,000 of taxpayer money to date — raise taxes on healthcare, and add more Minnesotans to public health insurance.

House Republicans recognize that we are only one half of one branch of government, but we pushed for major reforms at MNsure and in the wider marketplace anyway. Over the past two years, we led efforts to eliminate MNsure's special exemptions from oversight, force improvements in technology and customer service performance, reduce the MNsure Tax that drives up the cost of health insurance, and eliminate ridiculous bonuses for MNsure executives.

While we succeeded in improving oversight of MNsure, too often Legislative Democrats and Governor Dayton chose the status quo over bold reforms.

Republicans also led on creating more health insurance options for the employees of small business — a group that also faces declining choices and rising costs. That measure received broad bipartisan support in the House, but was stymied by the Dayton Administration.

Just as importantly, we worked in a bipartisan manner to eliminate unfair Medical Assistance liens on families and seniors, and passed telemedicine reform to increase access to quality care in rural areas of our state.

House Republicans will continue putting families first as we seek solutions to this crisis.

The top goal must be to lower costs. Our plan would provide immediate relief by cutting the MNsure Tax by half to save families $22 million over the next three years. Republicans also support using $35 million in leftover funds from a now-defunct health program for direct premium reductions. And passing the tax relief bill unnecessarily vetoed by Governor Dayton would put money back in the pockets of families that could help defray rising healthcare bills.

Second, Minnesotans need more choices. Republicans believe in giving Minnesotans access to tax credits outside of MNsure. If lowering the uninsured rate is the goal of Obamacare's, why limit people's choices only to plans sold on a broken website? Families need options and easier access to federal premium tax credits, and should be allowed to shop wherever is most convenient for them.

Third, we need long-term stability and competition. While options are constrained by the Affordable Care Act or Obamacare, we can employ creative solutions that stabilize the individual market and lower costs either through portable premium assistance for consumers or a reinsurance program similar in purpose to the former Minnesota Comprehensive Health Association.

In order to fix this mess, we need bipartisan solutions for Minnesota's healthcare system. That means moving past partisan allegiance to the dysfunctional MNsure website, and taking common-sense steps to help residents struggling with rising costs and shrinking choices. Time is short. Families are waiting. Republicans are ready.

Minnesota sees significant drop in obesity rate

The state's adult obesity rate saw a statistically significant drop between 2014 and 2015, from 27.6 percent in 2014 to 26.1 percent in 2015, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

Minnesota was the only state in the region, including North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Iowa, to succeed in keeping its obesity rates firmly below 30 percent. According to data released early September by CDC, neighboring states' rates ranged from 30.7 to 32.1 percent.

CDC released 2015 state- and territory-specific data on adult obesity prevalence using self-reported information from the Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System (BRFSS). All states had more than one in five adults (20 percent) with obesity.

"Minnesota's obesity rate is markedly lower than our surrounding states and we were still able to achieve a greater decrease in 2015 than our neighboring states," said Minnesota Commissioner of Health Dr. Ed Ehlinger. "Achieving healthy weight for all Minnesotans is one of the key objectives for our Statewide Health Improvement Program (SHIP) and its community and private sector partners. By working together we've been able to increase opportunities for healthy eating and physical activity for all Minnesotans in every corner of the state."

Obesity rates can have a major impact on health care costs for related chronic diseases like diabetes. In 2008, Minnesota policymakers responded to skyrocketing health care costs driven in part by rising obesity rates, by enacting SHIP, as part of Minnesota's bipartisan health care reform legislation. Since that time, Minnesota's obesity rate held steady until it ticked up from 2013 to 2014 (from 25.5 percent to 27.6 percent). These latest CDC findings confirm that Minnesota has returned to its historically low obesity rate that remains steady on a year-to-year basis even as other states and the U.S. as a whole continues on an upward trend.

According to combined data from the CDC, the adult obesity rate for African Americans in Minnesota was 29.9 percent, which is lower than the national figure of 38.1 percent.

According to Meeker-McLeod-Sibley Community Health Behavior Survey results, in 2014, the obesity rates for adults ages 18 and older were: 37.2 percent Meeker, 30.5 percent McLeod and 35.4 percent Sibley. While it is great news that overall the state obesity rate has decreased there is still a significant amount of work to be done locally. Meeker-McLeod-Sibley Community Health Services (MMS CHS) is working with many partners, such as local schools, farmers markets and worksites to name a few, on projects to improve healthy eating and physical activity options across the three counties. The goal of the Statewide Health Improvement Program (SHIP) is to help Minnesotans live longer, healthier, better lives by preventing risk factors that lead to chronic disease. MMS CHS and the Meeker-McLeod-Sibley Healthy Communities Collaborative have been working for the past 6 1/2 years to help create good health where residents, live, work, learn and play. They are working together on making the Healthy Choice the Easy Choice! You can find out about the work they do together at <http://www.mmshealthycommunities.org/>.

Additional results of the 2014 Community Behavior Health Survey can be found at <http://www.mmshealthycommunities.org/wp-content/uploads/MMS-Community-Health-Survey-Results-Public-Version.pdf>.

Many factors play a role in obesity, making it a complex health issue to address. Across Minnesota, communities are working together through SHIP to expand healthy eating and active living opportunities along with tobacco prevention with multiple strategies, across multiple settings and sectors. SHIP spends $17.5 million per year supporting grant funding to local community partners that is in all 87 counties and 10 tribal nations. SHIP grants support locally controlled community health boards, which have linked with more than 2,570 active partner sites. These efforts support and leverage the work of a variety of partners such as community groups, schools, employers, farmers, chambers of commerce, hospitals and health care facilities, city planners, county boards, tribal officials and more.

For more information on the health of Meeker, McLeod, and Sibley Counties and the Statewide Health Improvement Program (SHIP) work that is occurring contact Mary Bachman, Meeker-McLeod-Sibley Community Health Services SHIP Coordinator at 507-237-4000.

The company is a reputable one and will present many amusement features which will please young and old alike. Among the attractions are four big sensational free acts, electric lighted farris wheel, 20th century merry-go-round, five big shows and concerts by two excellent brass bands. This promises to be one of the biggest events ever attempted in this part of the state. Don't miss it.

Our readers will kindly bear with us if the Enterprise is not up to the usual standard this week. We have moved our outfit into the Sutter building which we purchased last spring and it has caused us a lot of extra work, but after this issue we will have time to arrange things in a handier way, and we will be better equipped to serve our patrons than heretofore.

The first real frost visited this part of the state Monday, but on Wednesday the weather took a brace again for the better and indications show that we will have a few more days of good weather.

Residents of East Arlington were startled shortly after the noon hour Sunday by a terrific explosion, which shook the dwellings, made dishes perform queer antics on the tables and sent pictures into a pendulum motion on the walls. Some believed it was the end of the world, others had earthquakes in mind and still others who thought of exploding sewers.

But it was neither. It was dynamite, we are told-but too much of it. Allie Kliest decided to blast a tree stump at his home on the outskirts of the village, and put in an extra heavy charge of dynamite to do the trick.

It was announced that Sibley county was approved for WPA federal funds in the amount of $37,202.00 for countywide road improvements. The Sibley County board of commissioners, project sponsors will furnish materials and equipment to cost $30,357.36, giving the project a total value of $67,559.36. Employment will be given to over 60 persons certified for WPA work for approximately one year. Plans call for lengthening, widening and graveling curves, removing dangerous traffic hazards, improving road drainage structures, erecting guard rails and improving farm-to-market roads. Beyond giving much needed employment, the project will add permanent improvements to roads county wide.

Rabies, that dread disease which attacks both animals and humans, has been discovered on the Edward Kauffmann farm, 4 miles north east of Arlington, where five hogs died the past week. The animals were infected by a skunk which invaded their pen about five weeks ago, according to Dr. Vernie Dahl, local veterinarian. The skunk was shot by Mr. Kauffmann after it had bitten a number of the hogs. Just how many of the hogs on the Kauffmann farm were bitten will not be known definitely for some time, says Dr. Dahl.

Surgeons at the University hospital Minneapolis, found it necessary Tuesday to remove one of Danny Lueck's eyes. The eye was damaged by shotgun pellets October 7th when Danny's father, Earl Lueck of Arlington fired two blasts of a shotgun at his wife, son and daughter as they were walking away from their car which was stalled with a flat tire a mile southeast of Arlington. University hospital surgeons made every effort to save the eye of the little three-year old boy, but had to remove it to avoid infection and probable loss of the other eye. Mrs. Lueck, who was hospitalized for several days with pellet wounds on the back of her head and legs, has recovered from her injuries. The father, Earl, 23, who said he fired the shots "just to throw a scare into them", pleaded guilty to second degree assault Monday in district court as Shakopee. He has not as yet been sentenced.

Six members of the Sibley East varsity girls tennis team recently competed in the singles and doubles competition during the Section 2A Girls Individual Tennis Tournament in the Swanson Tennis Center at Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter.

Lundstrom & Harter

The Sibley East doubles team of seniors Ella Lundstrom and Alli Harter placed third in the doubles competition for the second consecutive year.

The Sibley East duo, which was seeded number one, came close to advancing to the state tournament without actually going.

In the opening round, Lundstrom and Harter defeated the St. Peter doubles team of seniors Natalie Yang and Claire Thompson 6-2, 6-1.

In the quarter-final round, Lundstrom and Harter defeated the Belle Plaine doubles team of sophomores Siri Kuhn and Kiersten Skelley 6-0, 6-2.

In the semi-final round, Lundstrom and Harter defeated the Le Sueur-Henderson doubles team of sophomores Erica Cronk and Kylie Dunning 6-0, 6-2.

In the final round, Lundstrom and Harter lost to the St. Peter doubles team of senior Ali Sandquist and Lii Elofson 2-6, 2-6.

In the true second match, Lundstrom and Harter lost to the Holy Family Catholic doubles team of senior Libby Moakley and junior Lindsey Harris 6-4, 1-6 and 7-6 (9-7).

Lundstrom concluded the season with a 17-9 record while Harter compiled a 19-7 mark.

"Ella and Alli were captains and great leaders both on and off the court this season," said Sibley East head coach Rene Moriarty. "Ella and Alli worked on their tennis game, but have so many interests with other sports, music and college courses. They're top notch kids that were so good for our program."

Moriarty continued, "I had hoped they would have reached their goal of making state, but they fell just short. It hurts to be that close, but that's life. I hope they continue to play the life long sport of tennis."

Young & Flieth

In the opening round, the Sibley East doubles team of juniors Faith Young and Lindsey Flieth defeated the Glencoe-Silver Lake doubles team of junior Grace Draeger and sophomore Justine Helmbrecht 3-6, 7-6 (4) and 6-3.

In the quarter-final round, Young and Flieth lost to eventual champions, senior Ali Sandquist and sophomore Lili Elofson from St. Peter, 3-6, 4-6.

Young concluded the season with a 19-4 record while Flieth compiled a 16-7 mark.

"Faith and Lindsey battled a St. Peter doubles team that played together all year," said Moriarty. "They were team leaders and I'm glad to have both of them back next year."

Butler

In the opening round, Sibley East sophomore singles player Ariel Butler lost to Le Sueur-Henderson senior Breanna Schug 1-6, 2-6.

Butler concluded the season with a 13-4 record.

"Ariel put in a lot of time during the off season and had a pretty solid record this year," Moriarty said. "She is gaining confidence and I'm looking forward to her returning next year."

Thomes

In the opening round, Sibley East senior singles player Mandy Thomes lost to Tri-City United freshman Kadi Lowe 0-6, 1-6.

Thomes concluded the season with an 8-13 record.

"Mandy made good improvement with her consistency this year," said Moriarty. "She had a positive attitude and was the team cheerleader."

SE football team defeats Le Sueur-Henderson 27-20

By Kurt Menk
Editor

The Sibley East varsity football team withstood a late rally and defeated visiting Le Sueur-Henderson 27-20 on Friday night, Oct. 14.

The Giants got on the scoreboard first when junior quarterback Jarid Miller found the end zone on a 9-yard touchdown run. Junior Matthew Plieseis followed with the extra point kick as Le Sueur-Henderson jumped out to a 7-0 lead with 5:24 left in the first quarter.

The Wolverines answered quickly when senior Brody Bates scored on a 1-yard plunge. Junior Holden Lindquist, after a fake extra point kick, took a pitch out from junior holder Gavin Bates and ran for the two-point conversion as Sibley East pulled ahead 8-7 with 1:41 remaining in the first frame.

The Wolverine defense stopped two potential scoring opportunities during the second quarter.

Junior Jaden Podratz first blocked a low 33-yard field goal attempt by Plieseis.

Senior Leighton Rose, after a turnover deep in Sibley East territory, then intercepted a pass late in the first half.

The Wolverine offense started to click in the third quarter and the result was two touchdowns.

Brody Bates hit paydirt on a 2-yard touchdown run with 5:46 left in the third frame. The Wolverines, however, fumbled the snap for the two-point conversion and had to settle for a 14-7 lead.

Brody Bates, less than five minutes later, took a handoff and ran six yards for a touchdown. The extra point kick by Lindquist was no good as Sibley East increased its advantage to 20-7 with just 57 seconds remaining in the third quarter.

The Wolverines were in total control early in the fourth quarter until Miller found a gap and galloped 91 yards for a touchdown. Senior Tanner Kurtweg blocked the extra point kick as the Giants pulled within 20-13 with 9:48 remaining.

Sibley East appeared to have the game wrapped up when junior Seth Fredin ran 20 yards for a touchdown. Lindquist converted the extra point kick as the Wolverines held a comfortable 27-13 lead with just 2:22 left in the final frame.

The Giants, however, hit a pair of long passes and marched down field on their next possession. The visitors then scored on an 11-yard pass from Miller to junior Najee Brown. Plieseis booted the extra point kick as Le Sueur-Henderson pulled within 27-20 with 54 second left in the game.

Le Sueur-Henderson, on the ensuing kickoff, recovered an onside kick a few seconds later.

The Giants marched down to the Sibley East 17 yard line, but the drive eventually stalled on downs as the Wolverines came away with a 27-20 victory.

"It was a hard fought win," said Sibley East head coach Chuck Hartman. "Le Sueur-Henderson really played hard. We knew they would. You could tell that from scouting them."

Hartman added, "We didn't really play that well for the entire game, but we played well enough to win."

The Wolverine offense compiled 432 total yards, all on the ground.

Junior Kevin Durham had 20 attempts for 114 yards. Brody Bates has 21 rushes for 86 yards and three touchdowns. Fredin had six touches for 79 yards and one score while junior Jesus Rodriguez had 49 yards on seven carries. Gavin Bates added 13 yards on two attempts.

Sibley East did not attempt a pass in the contest. One pass play was called, but Gavin Bates was sacked on the play.

The Wolverine defense controlled the Giant offense until the final frame.

Brody Bates sparked the defense with nine tackles and half a quarterback sack. Senior Cody Voight registered seven tackles and half a sack while senior Tim Otto recorded five tackles and two quarterback sacks. Kurtweg and Podratz contributed five tackles each, one-half sack apiece and one blocked kick each. Junior Lucas Chavez collected four tackles and a quarterback sack while Rose grabbed an interception. Freshman Lincoln Carpenter added five tackles.

"I thought special teams were huge," said Hartman. "We blocked a field goal and an extra point. That's four points we erased from the Giants. We tipped a punt and took over deep in their territory because of it, and we started in good field position on most drives. In what turned out to be a one score game, those things are big."

The Wolverines, 3-4, were scheduled to conclude their regular season at Norwood Young America on Wednesday night, Oct. 19. A summary from that contest will be published in next week's edition of the Arlington Enterprise.

Sibley East will more than likely travel to Worthington for the first round of the football playoffs at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 26.

SE volleyball team splits a pair of 3-0 matches

By Kurt Menk
Editor

The Sibley East varsity girls volleyball team split a pair of 3-0 matches in play last week.

The Lady Wolverines, 1-4 in the Minnesota River Conference and 12-16 overall, will face an unknown opponent more than likely on the road during the opening round of the Section 2AA North Sub-Section Volleyball Tournament on Thursday night, Oct. 27.

Sibley East 3 Cleveland 0

The visiting Sibley East varsity girls volleyball team swept Cleveland 3-0 in non-conference action on Monday night, Oct. 10.

The Lady Wolverines took the three games 25-19, 25-22 and 25-22 respectively.

Junior Taylor Brinkman

converted 16 of 18 serves with three aces and collected 18 set assists, five digs and three blocks. Junior Morgan Stearns had 12 of 13 serves with two aces and contributed 18 set assists, eight kills and four digs. Senior Hannah Wentzlaff converted 12 of 12 serves and recorded six kills, six digs and two blocks while sophomore Rachel Rettmann had 11 kills, three digs and two blocks. Junior Taylor Perschau compiled 11 digs while senior Emma Samletzka added six kills and two digs.

"We were not as sharp as we wanted to be, although we were able to win in three sets," said Sibley East head coach Chip Wolverson. "Some passing was just off by a bit at times, as was setting and hitting. When we are sharp in all areas, we are playing some very good volleyball. But if one facet of the game is a bit off, it affects the end result. We are looking to work on better ball control as we head into the stretch run on our season."

Belle Plaine 3 Sibley East 0

The Sibley East varsity girls volleyball team was swept by visiting Belle Plaine 3-0 in Minnesota River Conference action on Thursday night, Oct. 13.

The Lady Wolverines dropped the three games 25-14, 29-27 and 25-17 respectively.

Senior Hannah Wentzlaff converted 12 of 13 serves with two aces and contributed six kills, five digs and two blocks. Junior Morgan Stearns recorded eight set assists, four kills, two digs and two blocks. Sophomore Rachel Rettmann collected six of seven serves, seven kills, four digs and one block while junior Taylor Brinkman had 13 set assists and one block. Junior Taylor Perschau added five digs.

"I thought we played inspired volleyball throughout the night," said Sibley East head coach Chip Wolverson. "There were a few stretches where Belle Plaine controlled play, but many other stretches where we were able to play right with them."

Wolverson continued, "Overall, there was a lot in this match that I liked. I liked the way we competed, played with heart and went toe-to-toe with one of the best teams in the state. I think we showed what we are capable of; now we just need to bring that on a consistent basis."
