

Panthers enter WCC play on nine-game win streak

By Tom Carothers
Sports Editor

It seems so long ago that the Glencoe-Silver Lake boys' basketball team opened its season with an 0-3 record.

Nine victories ago, to be exact.

The Panthers finished off the pre-conference portion of their schedule with three consecutive wins last week to up its streak of victories to nine games as the squad prepares to open Wright County Conference West competition on Friday against visiting Litchfield.

"This team is just incredible," coach Robb DeCorsey said. "It's such a good group to coach – they are learning more and more every day."

A run that began with a 65-50 win at Hutchinson a month ago carried through the first week of 2017 as GSL slogged through a trio of contests against prospective Section 2AA competitors in Jordan, Belle Plaine and LeSueur-Henderson.

It was far from easy, but the Panthers were able to take all three contests to improve their record against sectional opponents to 4-3 and their overall mark to 9-3.

"We were dead by the end of it," DeCorsey said. "After three games in a week, we were tired."

GSL took a 45-32 halftime lead against visiting Jordan on Tuesday, Jan. 3, but had to battle to hang on to the edge against a Hubmen second-half rally before claiming a 69-62 win.

Four Panthers scored in double digits, led by guard Luke Frahm with 14 points and forward Kyle Christensen with 13 points. Guard Ben Donnay and forward Jacob Litzau each logged 10 points.

A trip to Belle Plaine on Thursday, Jan. 5, proved both familiar and equally arduous.

After seizing a 33-15 lead at the break, GSL again had to scuffle to hang on for the win against a headlong second-half charge from the Tigers before walking away with a 52-44 win.

Frahm led all scorers with 17 points, while Litzau posted 12 points.

DeCorsey said the postgame locker room scene at Belle Plaine belied the streak that the Panthers had managed to maintain.

"Our guys had won eight straight, but it looked like we lost," he said. "A lot of guys were down about not having a good game, but I told them that it was time to celebrate – I mean, eight wins in a row is something to be proud of."

A third and final contest awaited the weary Panthers on Friday, Jan. 6, with LeSueur-Henderson paying GSL a visit.

"There was a fear of maybe overlooking that game because LeSueur-Henderson only has a couple of wins, but they always play us hard," DeCorsey said.

The Panthers led by as many as eight points in the first half, but the Giants did not go away.

GSL led 31-26 at the break, but the visitors surged ahead by as many as six points at 49-43 with six-and-a-half minutes to play as the Panthers went over four minutes without putting the ball in the basket.

"We put forth a lot of effort in both the Jordan and Belle Plaine games," DeCorsey said. "Our guys were so dead – just weren't doing the plays."

However, all was not lost as the Panthers picked themselves up off the mat and got back into the contest.

A six-point rally leveled the count at 49-49 with five minutes to go. After some back-and-forth, a steal by Nick Schmidt led to a Frahm layup

GSL girls' hoopsters begin conference play

The Glencoe-Silver Lake girls' basketball team wrapped up its pre-conference schedule with a pair of wins against Section 2AA competitors last week.

The Panthers were able to improve their case for future sectional playoff seeding by downing Jordan 74-60 on Tuesday, Jan. 3, and then defeating Gibbon-Fairfax-Winthrop 78-63 two nights later.

Against Jordan, guard McKenna Monahan led a trio of GSL double-digit scorers with 21 points to go with six rebounds, five steals and four assists.

Guard Maddie Monahan had 14 points with nine rebounds and team highs of eight assists and six steals. Backcourt mate Olivia Lemke had 11 points with three steals, while forward Samantha Voigt posted a team-high 12 rebounds.

The Panthers rallied from a 32-29 halftime deficit in topping GFW with a 49-31 second-half outburst as four players managed double digits in scoring.

Maddie and McKenna Monahan had 23 and 14 points, respectively, while Voigt scored 12 points and guard Miah Monahan logged 11 points. Forward Mickalyn Frahm and Maddie Monahan recorded 11 rebounds apiece.

Unfortunately for GSL, the Wright County Conference West slate opened at 2016 state finalist New London-Spicer.

The Wildcats nearly doubled-up their visitors in the first half, taking a 45-24 lead into the locker room, before the Panthers played nearly even in the second half before falling 77-53.

Maddie Monahan led GSL with 29 points, six rebounds, five steals and four assists in the defeat.

The Panthers' home game against Dassel-Cokato, originally scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 10, was postponed due to inclement weather.

GSL is scheduled to resume competition on Friday at Litchfield.

Gymnasts open 2017 with a pair of meets

By Tom Carothers
Sports Editor

The Glencoe-Silver Lake gymnastics team opened the new year with a pair of meets, as coach Kim Hahn continues to be impressed by the progress of her squad.

"The team is performing great," she said. "We have had consistent team scores this season and also got a season high at Big Lake."

A score of 117 at the Big Lake Tropical Twist Invitational on Saturday, Jan. 7, surpassed the Panthers' previous high of 116.525 set in a meet against Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted on Dec. 13.

GSL record a 31.7 on vault, 27.65 on uneven bars, 25.9 on balance beam and 31.75 on floor exercise to finish eighth overall in the team standings.

The Big Lake Invite came two days after the Panthers hosted Orono in a Wright County Conference dual meet. GSL scored a 115.450 to 126.175 for the Spartans.

Marissa Greeley finished third in the individual all-around with a 29.65, while Greeley was fifth on vault (8.3), beam (7.275) and floor (7.8). Mikayla Wigern cracked the top five on vault, finishing fourth with an 8.4. The GSL junior varsity scored a 75.15 to Orono's 84.85. Amber Orr placed second in the individual all-around with a score of 21.85. "They are doing awesome – working hard on changing up difficulty and working on execution as well," Hahn said of her gymnasts. A home dual against St. Peter, scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 10, was postponed due to inclement weather. GSL is slated to compete in an invitational meet at the Farmington Instructional Service Center on Saturday.

Panther matmen third at Ogilvie

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor
Competing in just its second meet since Dec. 13, the Glencoe-Silver Lake/Lester Prairie wrestling team finished third in the Ogilvie Lions Tournament on Saturday, Jan. 7. "After having so much time off in the past month, it was good to see them get back at it," coach Lance Wurm said. Wurm noted that it took a little bit for the Panthers to "knock the rust off" as they competed for the first time since Dec. 22. "After the first round, we got back to wrestling the way we should be wrestling," he said. GSL/LP finished with 142 points in taking third. St. Croix Falls won the meet with 208.5 points. Panther grapplers earned a pair of individual first-place finishes in their respective weight classes. Kole Polzin took first at 138 pounds after scoring a 13-5 major decision against Spencer Langer of St. Croix Falls to go perfect on the day. Paul Lemke won the 285-pound bracket by finishing off a spotless day with a win by fall against St. Croix Falls' Kyle Drinken. GSL/LP also recorded four third-place finishes, including Zachary Voelz at 106, Tanner Chmielewski at 120, Dalton Kosek at 160 and Cody Rae at 170. Unfortunately for the Panthers, the Ogilvie meet will be the team's final competition for at least another week as the outbreak of skin herpes that sidelined the squad through much of December has re-emerged. "We've got skin issues going again," Wurm said. "We wrestle for a week and something happens. Something's wrong." Thursday's meet at Dassel-Cokato has been postponed, as has Friday night's "Takedown Cancer Night" at Lester Prairie against Norwood Young America.

to put the hosts up for good at 55-53 with just under three minutes in regulation. From there, it was all GSL as the Panthers scored nine of the game's final 10 points to finish off a 19-3 run and secure the 64-54 win. "These guys have a lot of spirit," DeCorsey said. Final statistics for the game were not available. Standing between GSL and a 10th consecutive win is Litchfield, which comes to town Friday night with a 6-5 overall record. With a week of rest by game-time, DeCorsey feels his team will be ready for the challenge. "These guys are such a great group of gym rats," DeCorsey said. "Just a tremendous group – each and every one of them has made big contributions to this winning streak. Everyone is gunning for us now, but these guys believe in themselves and one another."

#Dependent

What a terrible insult it is to call someone dependent. We live in a do it yourself society and it goes against the grain in so many ways that for some DIY types, there would be nothing more demeaning than to be considered dependent or in need.

Yes even us who identify ourselves as Christians line up one by one as we try to get out of the boat and walk on water. It is as if we think that somehow we will do it better than Peter. We can talk our self into thinking if Peter can do it; I can do it a little better. Funny, we say Peter walked on water, but we say it as if we do not know the account. Yes, as soon as Peter gets to walking he takes his eyes off of Jesus and starts to drown.

Once Peter takes his eyes off of Jesus the wind, and the waves of the storm in his life quickly overwhelms Peter. Similarly, our days are filled with so many things that another day can pass where we spend no time looking toward Jesus and we feel as if we are drowning in what is before us. John 15:5 "I am the vine and you are the branches. The one who remains in Me, and I in him, will bear much fruit. For apart from Me you can do nothing."

It is for those who are dependent on Jesus who tastes real fullness and victory as it was meant to be in this life.
