

Lady Panthers clinch share of WCC West championship

By Tom Carothers
Sports Editor

With yet another three-game sweep, this time of Rockford, the Glencoe-Silver Lake volleyball team clinched at least a share of the Wright County Conference West championship Monday night.

However, coach Lori Schwirtz had little time for any talk of splitting the crown with anyone this season – pointing instead to the one critical game remaining on the team’s schedule.

“We can win the title outright on Thursday,” she said. “We don’t want to share it this year.”

The Panthers, 24-5 overall, take a 6-0 conference record into Thursday night’s contest at WCC West foe Annandale. The Cardinals saw their chance at possibly sharing the conference championship go by the wayside in a five-game match loss to Dassel-Cokato on Thursday, Oct. 8.

However, with GSL holding a one-half game lead over second-place New London-Spicer – which has completed its conference slate – Annandale could still play the role of spoiler.

The Panthers swept NL-S on Tuesday, Sept. 22, but the conference does not take head-to-head record into account when determining a champion. That means a loss to the Cardinals and GSL must share the spoils with the Wildcats.

If Monday’s match was any indication, the Panthers appeared well prepared for the conference finale.

GSL stormed to victory in less than an hour, winning in three straight (25-15, 25-7 and 25-20).

The Rockets put up a bit of a fight in the final game, taking leads of 4-1 and 14-10, before the Panthers surged. GSL took the lead for good at 25-21 and iced the game on a kill by middle hitter Maddy Kalenberg.

Fellow middle hitter Erika Ribar led the team with seven kills on the night, with Kalenberg, middle hitter Maddie Monahan and outside hitter Rachael Popp each logging four kills in the match.

Setter Layne Herrmann had 21 set assists to lead the Panthers, with Ribar’s 12 digs also pacing the squad.

Ribar also became the all-time team leader in ace blocks, passing Stephanie Klockmann’s former team record of 114 during the

Playoff time arrives for Panthers

The Glencoe-Silver Lake football team, seeded first in the Section 2AAA playoffs, began the postseason against Holy Family Catholic on Tuesday night after the Chronicle went to press. If the Panthers were able to again defeat their East Central South District rivals – GSL defeated the Fire 42-21 on Friday, Sept. 11 – they will face either third-seeded Providence Academy or No. 2 seed Belle Plaine for the section title and a trip to the state tournament on Saturday. The 2AAA championship game is slated to kick off at 3 p.m. Saturday at the home field of the top remaining seed. The Panthers won the section title in each of the last two seasons.

The lone remaining competitors for the Glencoe-Silver Lake girls’ tennis team saw their seasons come to a close in the Section 2A individual tournament on Thursday, Oct. 15 at Gustavus Adolphus College in St. Peter.

Senior Lindsay Wedin and junior Teanna Vorlicek, seeded sixth in the doubles bracket, defeated Julia Elmquist and Marissa Johnson of Southwest Christian 6-1, 6-0 in opening-round play before falling 6-4, 6-2 to Kelli Hanson/Josie Carlson of St. Peter in the quarterfinals.

It was the final high school match for Wedin, who played for the Panthers for four seasons and was the lone returning varsity player on this year’s squad.

The Glencoe-Silver Lake girls’ soccer season came to a close on Tuesday, Oct. 13 with a 5-0 loss at Mankato Loyola in the opening round of the Section 2A Tournament.

After holding Loyola scoreless for nearly a half-hour, the Panthers allowed their hosts a pair of quick goals and could not recover before the final horn sounded to close out GSL’s season.

The Panthers finished with a 2-10-3 overall record and were 1-7-2 in Wright County Conference play.

GSL’s wins came over Worthington in the second game of the fall and at Jordan in the regular-season finale.

Along the way, the Panthers also claimed three ties, knotting up with Spectrum, Mayer Lutheran and Rockford.

Emily Thalmann was GSL’s leading goal scorer this season, with four. She also had a team-best two assists.

Shelby Clouse had three goals, with Jordan Breidenbach scoring twice this year.

The gold nugget

There once was a miser who had a large gold nugget. He buried the gold and each day he dug it up and admired it.

One day he discovered it had been stolen. He cried out in anguish, "What am I to do?" A kind neighbor came to his aid.

"Go find a stone of equal size, paint it gold and bury it," she said. "Then come each day as you did before and pretend the gold nugget is still there. The stone will serve the same purpose since you never meant to use the gold anyway."

Now the man did not want to share his wealth. He did not ever truly have the gold, the gold had him. The Bible warns us of the love of money. Money is ok as long as we share what we have. A person's wealth is not measured in how much he or she has, but in how freely it is shared. Let us be generous with our God-given talents, time, energy and money!
