

Herrmann hits 1,000 set assists

Lady Panthers win 3 in a row and improve to 16-8

When the Glencoe-Silver Lake Lady Panther volleyball team takes the court Thursday, it will have been two weeks since it last lost to New London-Spicer on Sept. 25, when they fell in four sets.

Since that time, GSL has rattled off three straight wins over GFW, Dassel-Cokato and Mayer Lutheran, while only giving up one set through that stretch.

Layne Herrmann also hit 1,000 set assists when the crafty junior tallied 31 in the three-set sweep of the Dassel-Cokato Chargers on Thursday, Oct. 2.

"It was one of my goals at the beginning of the season, and just to accomplish it – I'm over the moon," an elated Herrmann said after the match. "I just kept focused on what needed to be done, and if it happened, it happened."

Herrmann achieved her personal goal in the second set when she found middle hitter Erika Ribar for a 9-6 Panther lead.

The setter's milestone was a big individual highlight, but Monday night at home, the Lady Panthers celebrated a 3-1 win over the Mayer Lutheran Crusaders, who had been receiving votes in the latest polls for Class A, but was just outside the top 10.

Head Coach Lori Schwirtz acknowledged the importance of earning a win over a reputable program like Mayer Lutheran.

"Mayer Lutheran has always been a great ball team," Schwirtz said. "If you look at the records or the history, they've been to state probably eight out of the last 11 years."

GSL took set one 25-21 when Ribar stayed poised and got the game-winning kill after first getting stuffed at the net. The ball came back to the Panthers, who went right back to Ribar for the finish, despite

But Roepke and fellow middle hitter Maria Kuntz helped the Crusaders come back to steal the second set 25-23 despite a 10-5 Panther lead early on.

"I do think we were a little bit flat footed in the second game," Schwirtz conceded. "They played harder after we won the first one. Every point Mayer Lutheran had, they were cheering like it was a state tournament game."

The Panthers stormed back in the third set behind a pair of kills and a block from Ribar that put GSL back in the game after it fell behind 5-1.

Maddie Monahan tied the set at 6-6, notching a kill from her middle hitter position after libero Cortney Konen made one of many clutch digs. Konen's forceful serves then led to a pair of aces that helped bolster the Panther lead. Once that lead was established, Herrmann kept the Crusader defense guessing by sending the ball over with a quick set on the second volley that ML couldn't seem to defend.

"We kind of picked up on that and where the hole was," Schwirtz said. "I felt like it took them off guard if she set it over on the second one, so we kind of did the little hand single and she picked that off pretty well."

The Crusaders kept the score tight, however, and even closed the deficit to one point late in the third when Roepke hit an ace that made it 23-22 GSL. But Roepke's service error that followed gave the Lady Panthers some breathing room as Emily Muetzel went back to serve for GSL.

Muetzel's sly serve drew the Crusader defense out of position and led to a game-winning kill, as GSL took a one set advantage with the 25-22 victory.

Directly above, Erika Ribar (11) went up for a block-off with Mayer Lutheran's Shonie Heuer (2) and Rachel Roepke (6). Ribar finished with five of the Panthers' 10 blocks, which is a season high.

Panthers get back to .500

Creeping back to .500 with a solid 34-7 triumph over the hosting Litchfield Dragons on Friday, the Glencoe-Silver Lake Panthers turned in another solid all-around performance while seeking to win-out the rest of the regular season.

Though the Panthers got off to a shaky start defensively by letting Litchfield swap sides of the field in just two plays on its first drive – driving from the Litchfield 35 to about the GSL 28 on a pair of runs by Dragon running backs Eddie Estrada and Ben Haugo.

Those runs prompted an "attitude adjustment," according to Head Coach Scott Tschimperle.

But the GSL defense did a great job of bending but not breaking as Litchfield's drive stalled out at the Panther 20 and turned the ball over after a 10-play opening drive.

Keaton Anderson and the revamped Panther offense looked impressive on its first series, as all four weapons of the backfield – Anderson, Teddy Petersen, Bennett Bielke and Tyler Chap – contributed on a 17-play drive that culminated in a five-yard touchdown pass from Anderson to Tanner Grack from the daffy duck formation after the Panthers initially lined up for a field goal.

However, the Panthers never really put Litchfield away until the third quarter, where GSL scored 23 of its 34 points after taking a 12-7 lead into halftime.

Fullback Tyler Chap had his biggest game of the season thus far with nine rushes for 98 yards and a third-quarter, 23-yard touchdown gash up the middle that put the Panthers up 20-7 a little over two minutes into the second half.

In all, GSL rushed for 323 yards on 53 attempts as the Panther tailback Bennett Bielke (21) found some space after lining up at wide receiver and catching a 14-yard pass from Keaton Anderson in the third quarter of GSL's 34-7 victory over Litchfield. Bielke also had 51 rushing yards on 12 attempts, and even completed a pass to Jayden Tschimperle on a two-point conversion halfback pass.

newcomers to the backfield continue to open things up for the rest of the Panther offense, according to Tschimperle.

"By moving Teddy and Bennett into the backfield, it's made everybody better," Tschimperle said. "Before, all they had to do was just stop Keaton."

yards for the second consecutive game, eclipsing the mark with 107 yards on 16 carries with a pair of touchdowns. He also hauled in a 10-yard pass Anderson threaded beautifully over a linebacker after a pump fake, and scooted 49 yards after the catch for a touchdown that gave the Panthers their halftime lead.

Anderson completed four passes to four different receivers while attempting seven throws, and finished with 94 yards and two scores.

While the offense took a tad bit longer to get into gear, the Panther defense answered the

Boys take Swain by a whisker

Girls' top five hit Savre's goal of 20:00

By Josh Randt
Sports Editor

The Glencoe-Silver Lake cross country teams found where they stand against some of the state's best at the Swain invitational in Duluth this past weekend, where hundreds of runners trampled through soggy conditions.

Though rains dampened the trail at Enger Park Golf Course, GSL's boys just edged Holy Family Catholic (HFC) for first place, despite both teams posting a 106 team score.

GSL's girls took 19th out of 25 teams with 434 points, but the top five runners broke 20 minutes, a season-long goal Head Coach Jann Savre put in place.

The deciding factor in the boys' win by a whisker was the teams' sixth-place runners.

Michael Schaefer's time of 18:30 put him in 56th place as the No. 6 runner for the Panthers, which destroyed HFC's Steven Hoff's time of 19:05 that resulted in 83rd place.

Boys' Head Coach Jeff Delwiche was happy with the hair-raising finish, but was even more thrilled that there is still room for improvement.

"The good thing is we won, but we've got room to move upwards," Delwiche said. "We didn't peak at Swain, so we've got some left in us and hopefully we really show it at sections."

Also in attendance were the Mora Mustangs, which are a prime rival of GSL's, and also reside in Section 5A.

Last season, the Mustangs defeated the Panther boys at Swain, and both the section and state meets, and have been on GSL's radar ever

Jac Chelman (left) and Isiah Herout were the top two runners for GSL at the Swain invitational in Duluth on Saturday, Oct. 4. The two were part of GSL's top-five runners, which all finished the wet trail at Enger Park Golf Course in under 18 minutes. Chelman's time of 17:18 was good enough for 13th overall, while Herout's 17:28 earned him 19th place.

since.

Mora competed well, posting 111 team points in a third-place effort, and even outplacated GSL's top four, but earned an extra 17 points between its fourth and fifth-place runners. Meanwhile, GSL only added four points between Austin Schroeffer in 27th (17:48) and Garret Ardolph in 31st (18:00), who finished fourth and fifth on the team.

Delwiche admitted the besting was sweet.

"Any win is a good win against them," said Delwiche.

Soccer pieces don't fit quite yet

Girls finish 3-11, but take big strides with a very young team

By Josh Randt
Sports Editor

The last two seasons for the Glencoe-Silver Lake girls' soccer team have been tedious and trying, as Head Coach Zach Otto-Fisher has constantly been trying to fit the right pieces together like a human jigsaw puzzle.

GSL's 2014 season came to a close Monday night in Fairmont by way of a 4-0 loss at the hands of the Cardinals.

But the picture became a little clearer than it was a season ago, when the Panthers went 1-14, and gave up 75 goals, while only scoring five.

This season, GSL went 3-13, scored 17 goals while surrendering 59, which is the lowest amount given up since 2011 (57) when Otto-Fisher first took over.

"All in all, the girls did some good things on the year," said Otto-Fisher. "Especially because we are still young, had injuries galore, and switched from a four line defense down to three this year."

GSL's defense was constantly tested, and Zoe Christensen's save percentage dropped one percent from her eighth-grade campaign, which ended at 82 percent.

The freshman missed three games with a concussion, which senior midfielder Keisha Prafke filled in for and finished with an 85 percent save percentage. She stopped 22 of 26 shots she faced.

"I was overly impressed with how the girls all stepped up and filled in when needed," Otto-Fisher said. "The future looks very bright. We had some huge additions this year in Shelby (Clouse), (Kirsten) Barott and Paige Anderson."

Only two seniors — Prafke and Vanessa Villarreal — played under Otto-Fisher this season, alongside five juniors.

The rest of the roster was made up of ninth, 10th and 11th graders, and the team's leading scorer, eighth-grade midfielder Emily Thalmann.

Thalmann turned in seven goals on 28 shots and two assists in her second year as a varsity soccer player.

Only Prafke took more shots (30), but came away with three goals.

The highest scoring percentages belonged to Clouse and Camille Bor-

Clouse scored three times on 13 shots, while Borchardt's two goals on eight shots was also impressive.

But Clouse, Maddie Kuehn and Prafke all missed playing time this year because of injuries as well, thrusting Otto-

Fisher into the role of puzzle master once again.

"This year, it seemed like we had missing pieces due to injuries, or last year's graduation," he said. "We had some pieces that did not belong in there ... maybe from a different set. And we coaches had to try and jam the pieces in there to make it work. It looked close and almost worked, but in the end it was not yet that perfect piece."

Lemke earns MIAC weekly honors

The Augsburg College volleyball team ripped off three impressive wins last week, with Brownton native Courtney Lemke playing a massive part.

The sophomore racked up 157 total assists in the three wins, including a pair of matches with more than 50 assists, and an average of 13.08 assists per set. For her performance, Lemke was honored Monday by the MIAC Sports Information Directors with the MIAC Volleyball Setter/Libero-of-the-Week award.

Lemke started her week with a splash in conference play on Wednesday, Oct. 1, with 52 assists and four digs in a 3-1 MIAC win over St.

Courtney Lemke

Olaf. She also had big numbers in a pair of wins over the weekend at the Wartburg quadrangular over the weekend. Lemke had 39 assists and nine digs in a 3-0 win over Coe, then went for a career-high 66 assists to go along with 16 digs in a 3-2 win over the host school.

This season, Lemke ranks second in the MIAC in assists per set (10.88) and third in total assists (653).

Thanks to last week's success, the Auggies improved to 15-4 overall and are currently tied for fourth in the MIAC standings with a 3-1 conference record, and Augsburg is currently ranked No. 24 in the nation in the AVCA poll. This week, the Auggies will search for more conference success with a pair of MIAC matches on the schedule.

Wednesday they host Bethel at 7 p.m., and Friday they travel across the metro to St. Paul to face Hamline at 7 p.m.

Team tennis ends against Annandale

By Josh Randt
Sports Editor

With the season hanging in the balance, the Panther tennis team was unable to come out on top of the Annandale Cardinals in the opening round of the Section 5A tournament, and lost 5-2 on Oct. 2.

Less than ideal conditions pushed the contest back to 5 p.m. instead of 1 p.m., and switched the venue to the Daytona Country Club in Dayton instead of at Annandale High School.

Four out of the seven matchups went into three sets Thursday, but unfortunately only Glencoe-Silver Lake's Piper Davis managed to pull out a win versus Sarah Grimm. Davis defeated Grimm at No. 1 singles 6-4 and 10-4 in a tiebreaker after she got off to a slow start and lost the first set 6-2.

Though they were unable to extend their season, Head Coach Robb DeCorsey stressed that his Panthers played well, but lost their focus at times.

"It was a good tennis match, things just didn't bounce our way," DeCorsey explained over the phone Monday from St. John's University, where he hoped his girls would be playing had they won Thursday. "The matches were too close to lose focus. If we could've held our focus a little better, things would have gone the other way."

A wrinkle in Annandale's lineup may have made all the difference, as it pulled Alexa Henson from the No. 2 singles spot and paired her up with Sami Borders at No. 2 doubles. The pair defeated GSL's Ashlyn Ratike and Emily VonBerge 4-6, 7-5 and 6-3.

The Cardinals' Libby Wirth was then sacrificed to Rachel Rusten at No. 2 singles, who didn't drop a set to Wirth, winning both 6-0.

But DeCorsey said that move was a smart one on Annandale's part.

"That completely changed their second doubles team, and made them a lot stronger," said DeCorsey. "They needed to sweep the doubles, which they did."

The loss put GSL at 5-13 overall for the season, and 2-7 in the Wright County Conference in a year where DeCorsey felt his senior-led team should have been vying for a spot inside the top four or five teams.

Instead, the only wins GSL produced in the WCC came nearly a month apart, as the Panthers defeated New Prague 4-3 on Aug. 26, and didn't win another conference match until a 5-2 victory over New London-Spicer on Sept. 23.

"We've got all the seniors and a junior with experience, so it's not like we came here with a bunch of seniors that never played varsity tennis before," DeCorsey said. "We underachieved a little bit and left some tennis sitting on the table."

Though the team's season is over, DeCorsey said his girls' focus needs to shift to the individual section tournament, which starts Thursday in Glencoe at 10 a.m.

Whisker win Continued from page 1B

But he later added, "I don't want to be even that close to Mora at sections.

"It was good at Duluth, they all ran well," Delwiche prefaced. "But I know there's (been) other races during the year that I've seen them run with even higher potential. I'm sure we've got more in us."

Girls

Swain's course featured a tight left turn near the start that gave most of Savre's runners problems, but used it as a learning point.

"Learning where to run hard and when to settle into a maintainable rhythm comes from experience and our girls are becoming better at that," Savre said. "They did a very nice job of attacking the wet soggy hills for the remainder of the race."

Annamaria Falcon and Gia Venier were the only Panther girls to finish inside the top 100 runners, taking 56th and 78th place with times of 18:16 and 18:39.

The remainder of the regular-season schedule shouldn't require quite as much traveling, as the conference meet is Thursday in Glencoe. After that, all that remains is Watertown-Mayer's invitational on Oct. 14 before the Section 5A meet at Milaca on Oct. 23.

Keaton Anderson had quite the game at the quarterback position for the Panthers Friday night in Litchfield. The senior rushed for 62 yards on 12 carries, and completed four of his attempted seven passes to four different receivers for 94 yards and two touchdowns. He'll look to continue that trend Friday, when GSL visits the Dassel-Cokato Chargers.

call after that initial attitude adjustment Tschimperle spoke of, despite allowing a two-yard score to Dragon quarterback Josh Pahl late in the second quarter that gave Litchfield a brief 7-6 lead. However, Petersen's lead-changing score followed just 44 seconds later.

That was the only touchdown the Dragons could come by, as Pahl was intercepted twice, once by Petersen at safety, and the other by linebacker Nick Brelje.

Pahl had a tough night, going 7-19 passing for 69 yards, and was also sacked once by Zach Jungclaus after a bungled snap went over his head.

Litchfield was held to just 174 total yards by the Panthers.

Up next for GSL is a battle between teams looking to boast a winning record for the first time this season, as the Panthers travel to Cokato for a Wright County Conference, West-Division showdown with the 3-3 Dassel-Cokato Chargers.

"We'll know a lot after Friday's game," said Tschimperle. "We've played two good opponents, and we're having some success, which is good. We're making blocks, and doing the little things alright, but we've got to do them better."

"... This is a big test for us," Tschimperle added later. "DC is a smash-mouth, north and south football team like they've always been, and we're trying to hold on to that second seed (in Section 2AAA) to get that bye."

The Panthers are currently seeded second in the section, just above 5-1 Watertown-Mayer because of a tougher QRF ranking, which takes into account toughness of schedule, and wins and losses by the teams they've competed against.

Kick off versus DC is set for 7 p.m. Friday night.

Getting footloose with the old man

I was able to cross off a moment from my bucket list that I didn't even know was on there this past weekend.

Friday I headed down to Faribault for a wedding between my close friend and relative Travis Ardolf, and his fiance Nikki on Saturday.

After a beautiful ceremony with friends and family in attendance, we headed to the local Elks Lodge for the reception.

I was primed for some dance floor antics after the meal, but waited until my judgment was properly watered down.

With Prince, Michael Jackson and Daft Punk pumping through the speakers, it was as if my legs were possessed, because next thing I knew I was dancing for hours.

My bucket-list moment came when my 57-year-old father, Chuck, moseyed out on to the floor next to me.

At a previous wedding for my friends Mike and Natalie in August, I told them how I love to watch my parents dance the polka.

Josh Randt

Reason being, my mom, Linda, dances fluidly and without wasted motion throughout her whole body. My dad, however, somehow maintains an upright torso while his legs wildly flail in every direction as he guides my mother around the dance floor.

After cutting a rug at the August wedding, Mike told me there was a very distinct possibility that I channeled my father's feet when my soles hit the hardwood.

What happened Saturday was a dance off between father and son that no one, including the two participants, saw coming.

Neither of us are sure how long it lasted. Primarily because by the time it was over, we had returned to our respective corners, and neither fighter looked like he could continue.

"That was a lot of fun, but I'm so damn out of shape!" my dad exclaimed afterward while I properly dehydrated myself further. "I thought I was going to have the big one!"

Once I ran into Mike again, he said, "That. Was. Awesome! Who do you think won?"

"I don't know," I told him between gasps of breath. "I never knew that could happen! I'm just glad it did."

That moment is something I'll never forget, along with Travis and Nikki's wedding, and I am forever grateful.

Though, Mike hinted I may have fallen to the great and wild-footed Chuck.

"You were moving pretty quick," Mike informed me, "but I think Chuck's legs were a little higher!"

I guess we'll have to have a rematch.

"I still feel good about the girls because they're a good team and it was fun," said DeCorsey. "We'll see what happens in the individual tournament now."

Expect to see some players moving around a bit, trying to maximize their match ups Thursday, as Davis and Rusten will most likely team up in the doubles bracket instead of playing singles like they have most of the year. The duo took first place at the Brainerd invitational back on Sept. 6, and will look to make a dent in section play.

Lady Panthers Continued from page 1B

GSL once again played with the Crusaders in the beginning of the fourth set, before establishing a seven-point lead midway through the frame.

ML tried to whittle away at the Panther lead, but could never make up enough ground as outside hitters Lexi Kerslake and Taylor Novak pressed the offensive from the sides of the net, while Herrmann, Ribar, Monahan and Maddy Kalenberg found multiple ways to score in the middle.

Kerslake sealed the victory with a set parallel to the net after sending the ball to the Crusader back court on the previous volley, which opened up a hole in the middle for the senior after the Lady Panthers corralled the ball defensively.

The Panthers have been fueled by a stout defense all season long, but have mostly relied on their digs and sharp ball control.

Monday in Glencoe saw the most blocks GSL has posted in a series all season with 10. Ribar led with five, and Kalenberg trailed right behind at four. Monahan notched the other.

GSL only has one contest this week, squaring off with Wright County Conference, West Division-foe Mound-Westonka (6-13) on Thursday, Oct. 9, at home. The Lady Panthers are then off until the Rochester Exchange Club's annual fall invitational on Oct. 17 and 18.

The last regular-season game is Oct. 21 at Litchfield, before the Lady Panthers move on to the Section 2AA tournament, starting Oct. 15 with the high seeds hosting. GSL is currently seeded fourth in the Section 2AA North subsection.

Tracing Roots

By Ron Pulkrabek

Freedom found in New Hradec

2014 Visit: New Hradec, (Ha-rrrrrrrdec; roll the "r" 4 times) N.D., is 90 miles west of Bismarck, six miles northwest of Dickinson and barely on the map.

A very impressive welcome sign is set into a flower garden at the entrance to the town, stating New Hradec; est. 1898; pop. 70.

New Hradec was started by pioneer Czech families who originally immigrated to Russia from the Czech Lands. Their ancestors had been promised free land and freedom by the Russians in the Crimea area of Russia. After many years and generations, the Russians broke all their promises and some families luckily immigrated to America between about 1890 and 1917. The Kraemer, Karg, Schmidt, Kaufman and Hepner ancestors also came from Russia and settled in Glencoe. The families who stayed behind were never heard from again once Stalin imposed his harsh rules.

The ancestors of New Hradec built a village on land set aside for them by the Northwest Improvement Company of America. The streets still remain as gravel roads.

The 1917 solid brick Saints Peter and Paul Catholic Church with a new tin roof has a visiting priest. The church marquee states, "The Official Czech Heritage Church." Two huge rough stone grottos dedicated to The Holy Mary are just inside the gate. A huge three-story brick parochial school is closed. The inside of the church has a beautiful altar and side altars with many freshly painted statues; the Stations of the Cross are large and brightly painted. The seats are of highly polished oak; the highly decorated communion railing is still in place with swinging front gates. It appears the priest still says Mass facing the altar as there is no island. The parish never could quite afford stained-glass windows and there are huge panes of frosted glass.

The cemetery is attached to the church. Words cast in large letters above the gate state, "Odpivejte V Pokoji" (Rest in Peace). A large, beautiful, 14-foot high, white monument of Jesus on the Cross, with His mother Mary, Mary Magdalene and Elizabeth, is located on one end of the cemetery. Dvorak, Pavlish, Havelka, Bren, Urbanic, Svoboda, Maresh and Kovar and another estimated 500 other souls rest here.

Two blocks away, we stopped at a nice white building almost as large as the Silver Lake auditorium. Catholic Workman Hall was painted in huge letters across the front. I walked in, down seven steps, and found tables set with white table cloths. Anna and Gladys were peeling potatoes, each had about 20 pounds of smaller red potatoes in their water-filled dish pan. I asked if they were preparing for a funeral. They said, "No, a wedding." They gave me a brief history of the town and thought I could find a copy of the New Hradec Centennial Book at the Czech House Museum in Dickinson. They knew of five Splichal families living in Dickinson, so maybe they are related to my Splichal grandparents.

I saw they couldn't peel and talk at the same time and it looked like they had two hours of work ahead of them in addition to warming the turkey and ham dinner for 150 people. A large dance hall was upstairs with a bar across the entire back wall.

Silver Lake and many other small communities had very active Catholic Workman Insurance organizations and still have policies.

We visited the Ceska Radnice (Czech Town Hall) located at a reconstructed village in Dickinson. It is a lovely, well-maintained park near Highway 94. Most of the collectibles from New Hradec are in their own nice building, including old wedding pictures attached to the walls, books, pamphlets, collectables, and brief histories of some people. Beatrice Splichal married Joseph Kostelecky in 1924. George Splichal played in a band called the "The Bohemian Melody Band." Lawrence Welk once sat in and played with the band. Joe Splichal was the official "Druzba," whose job was to drive around in a buggy, officially inviting people to weddings and having an adult beverage at each place. Frank Bren was a distinguished and important town leader.

New Hradec had its annual Czech Celebration on Sept. 16 with Chuck Kadmas and his six-piece band playing polkas accompanied by the Ethnic Czech Singers. A complete Czech meal with kolaches, rollicky (dinner rolls) and pivo (beer) was served.

Pastor's Corner

Be happy at work

"Work hard and cheerfully at whatever you do, as though you were working for the Lord rather than for people."
— Colossians 3:23

We all know that work can sometimes be mind-numbingly boring, difficult to the point of frustration, and stinging to the soul. But, it can also be exciting, provide a sense of accomplishment, and allow us to serve God by serving our fellow man. So, how do we ensure that we have more of the latter and less of the former? There is considerable evidence that what makes workers happy is a sense of agency, the sense that they are effective at what they are doing and that it is worthwhile work. What this really boils down to is doing something that you are good at. So, if you're in a job or career that you don't feel particularly suited to, you're probably not feeling great about your work. In that case, you should probably either retrain for a different job or work on the skills that will make you more effective in your current job. God has given all of us specific talents, and if we can incorporate those into our work we are bound to be happier and more effective. But, even if you aren't particularly good at what you do or happy where you work, do your best to put on a happy face each day at work. Sometimes happiness at work, like happiness in life, is just a choice that we make.

This weekly message is contributed by the following concerned citizens and businesses who urge you to attend the church of your choice. To be added to this page, contact us at 320-864-5518.

A few good ol' pot roast recipes

I love to travel. Seeing new places, trying new foods and restaurants is always exciting, but after being gone, eating out and living out of a suitcase for a week, it felt good to come home and I was ready for some home-cookin'.

My Turn Now

By Karin Ramige Cornwell

When I think about a good home-cooked meal, pot roast usually comes to mind. I have a few good recipes, of course all in the slow cooker, but am always up to try something new.

I had seen this three-envelope roast recipe before. I co-worker mentioned she had tried it and it was good and easy.

Three-Envelope Slow Cooker Roast

- 3 pounds chuck roast
- 1 envelop ranch dressing mix
- 1 envelope gravy mix
- 1 envelope Italian dressing mix
- 2 cups water

Brown meat if desired. Add the browned roast to the slow cooker. You can add onions, carrots and potatoes if you would like.

In a bowl whisk the water together with the three mixes. Pour the mixture over the roast.

Cover and cook on low for 8 or more, depending on your slow cooker.

While the envelopes are a great time saver, I usually find a recipe, don't have them on hand, don't feel like making a quick trip to the store and go searching for a homemade recipe. It seems most envelope packages are made up of things I have on hand.

Homemade Gravy Mix Recipe (2 tablespoons equals one envelope)

- 3 tablespoon beef bouillon granules
- 1 teaspoon onion powder
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 teaspoon thyme
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1/2 cup flour

Run all the ingredients through a blender or food processor until all the granules are the same consistency. Store in an airtight container.

To make gravy, mix 1/4 cup of mix with 2 cups of milk or water in a saucepan. Whisk over medium heat until smooth and it thickens.

Homemade Ranch Dressing Mix (3 tablespoons equals one envelope)

- 1/3 cup dry buttermilk powder
- 3 tablespoon parsley flakes
- 2-1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 2-1/2 teaspoon onion powder
- 2 teaspoon dried minced onion
- 2 teaspoon dried dill weed
- 1-1/2 teaspoon kosher salt
- 1 teaspoon black pepper

Run all the ingredients through a blender or food processor until all the granules are the same consistency. Store in an airtight container.

To make ranch dressing whisk together 3 tablespoons of ranch mix, 1 cup mayonnaise and 1 cup milk until smooth. Refrigerate for half hour before serving.

Homemade Italian Dressing Mix (2 tablespoons equals one envelope)

- 1 tablespoon garlic powder
- 1 tablespoon onion powder
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 2 tablespoon oregano
- 1/4 teaspoon thyme
- 1 teaspoon basil
- 1 tablespoon dried parsley
- 2 tablespoon salt

Run all the ingredients through a blender or food processor until all the granules are the same consistency. Store in an airtight container.

2. To make Italian dressing mix together 1/4 cup cider vinegar, 2/3 cup olive oil, 2 tablespoons water and 2 tablespoons mix. Store in the refrigerator.

MnDOT, farmers partner on snow control

In the winter of 2013-2014, Minnesota farm operators helped protect seven miles of state highway from blowing and drifting snow by leaving standing corn rows.

The Minnesota Department of Transportation (MnDOT) has an innovative program which pays farm operators to leave standing corn rows from fall to spring. These standing corn rows act as snow fences which catch snow throughout the winter to reduce blowing snow on state highways.

MnDOT also will pay farmers for two other snow-control ag production structures, including large hay bales and silage bags. These structures would be positioned in the field at the proper distance from the roadway to offer snow and blowing snow protection to the roadway. If farmers want to plant a perennial shrub row receiving conservation payments, MnDOT will complement these incentives as well.

MnDOT is using a "Blowing Snow Control Calculator" developed by the University of Minnesota Extension and the University of Minnesota Center for Transportation Studies, which assesses agricultural and MnDOT expenses to determine a fair and reasonable incentive payment for farmers. Farmers are compensated on a per acre basis that factors in crop yield, production costs, inconvenience factors for the farmer and traveling public, price of corn and anticipated snow removal cost savings as determined through the calculator.

MnDOT is seeking farmers with fields to the north and west sides of state highways and interstates where there is a known snow drifting problem. If you have land adjacent to a snow problem area and are interested in the program contact, Dan Gullickson, MnDOT Living Snow Fence coordinator at 651-366-3610 or visit www.dot.state.mn.us/environment/livingsnowfence for more information.

COLLINS TOWNSHIP McLeod County State of Minnesota NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED ASSESSMENT SUNSET CIRCLE AND NORTH SUNSET DRIVE IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

Notice is hereby given that the Town Board of Collins Township, McLeod County, Minnesota, will meet at 7 p.m. on the 23rd day of October, 2014, at the Stewart Community Center, to pass upon the proposed assessment of costs related to the improvements of Sunset Circle and North Sunset Drive. The area proposed to be assessed is all those properties abutting or having access to Sunset Circle and North Sunset Drive, all located in Collins Township.

The proposed assessment roll is on file for public inspection by contacting Alan Fredrickson, Collins Town Clerk. The total amount of the proposed assessment is $46,500. Adoption of the proposed assessment by the Town Board may be taken at the hearing. Written or oral objections will be considered at the meeting. No appeal may be taken as to the amount of the assessment unless a written objection, signed by the property owner, is filed with the Town Clerk prior to the hearing or presented to the presiding officer at the hearing.

An owner may appeal an assessment to the District Court pursuant to Minnesota Statutes Section 429.081 by serving written notice of the appeal upon the Town Chairman or Town Clerk within thirty (30) days after the adoption of the assessment and filing such notice with the District Court within ten (10) days after service upon the Town Chairman or the Town Clerk.

The Town Board may consider adopting a deferment policy at this public hearing pursuant to Minnesota Statutes Section 435.193 through 435.195. Minnesota Statutes Section 435.193 through 435.195 authorize a Town Board to defer the payment of assessments against homestead property owned by persons 65 years of age and older, or who are retired because of permanent and total disability under circumstances where it would be a hardship for such person to make the assessment payments. When deferment of the special assessment has been granted and is terminated for any reason provided in that law, all amounts accumulated plus applicable interest become due. If the Town Board adopts a deferment policy, any assessed property owner meeting the requirements of this law may, within 30 days of the confirmation of the assessment, apply to the Town Clerk for the prescribed form for such deferral of payment of this special assessment on said owner's property.
