By Tom Carothers Sports Editor

Riding high on a four-game winning streak, the Glencoe-Silver Lake girls' basketball team entered this week with a 12-7 overall record.

The streak also boosted the Panthers into a second-place tie in the Wright County Conference West with a 5-2 mark in circuit play.

Boosted by a 72-57 win at Annandale on Friday, Jan. 20, GSL opened a four-game home stand with a 99-70 defeat of Dassel-Cokato on Monday, Jan. 23.

"We really built off that first-ever win at Annandale," coach Jeff Monahan said.

As lopsided as that 29-point win was, it was not even the greatest score differential of the week.

After thumping Mound Westonka 71-47 on Tuesday, Jan. 24, the Panthers obliterated Rockford 80-43 to close out the string on Friday, Jan. 27. "We played really well

"We played really well against Mound Westonka and Dassel-Cokato," Monahan said. "Rockford is a little bit beat up right now; it has been a real tough stretch for them."

The 37-point defeat of the Rockets was GSL's largest margin since a 92-41 dismantling of LeSueur-Henderson in the Panthers' home opener on Dec. 5.

With GSL scoring a total of 250 points last week, Panther players filled the statsheets.

Guard McKenna Monahan led the squad with 21 points and five steals against Dassel-Cokato, with guard Maddie Monahan scoring 13 points and forward Samantha Voigt 10 points.

Forward Mickalyn Frahm hauled in a team-high six rebounds, with Maddie Monahan pacing the squad with eight assists.

Against Mound Westonka, guard Miah Monahan led the way with 17 points, followed by McKenna and Maddie Monahan with 16 points apiece and forward Kendra Ziebarth chipping in nine points

Voigt's seven rebounds topped the squad, as did Maddie Monahan's eight assists. Miah and McKenna Monahan tied for the team lead with five steals each in the contest

Maddie Monahan's 23 points were tops against Rockford, with McKenna Monahan scoring 12 points and Miah Monahan tallying 10 points.

Frahm and fellow forward Kaitlyn Uecker recorded nine points each. Voigt led the team with seven rebounds, which McKenna and Maddie Monahan had eight assists apiece to lead the squad.

Panther gymnasts earn win vs. Saints

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor

The Glencoe-Silver Lake gymnastics team claimed a home victory last week with a win over St. Peter before falling in a dual meet at New Prague.

A score of 120.375 earned the Panthers a win against the visiting Saints on Tuesday, Jan. 24, with St. Peter mustering up a score of 118.600.

Gia Venier placed second in the all-around with a score of 30.850, while Marissa Greeley took fourth with a 30.050. GSL won all four events via four separate competitors. Venier won the vault with an 8.625, with Alexis Bergstrom taking first on the uneven bars with a 7.3; Breana Templin was first on the balance beam with a 7.875, before Greeley's 8.375 earned first in floor exercise.

Two nights later in New Prague, the Panthers came up on the short end of a 135.975-119.700 decision.

Venier's 30.775 was good for second in the all-around, followed by Greeley's 30.15.

JV Update

The GSL junior varsity fell to St. Peter 87.700-82.550. Amber Orr and Kelsey Rae finished 1-2 in the all-around with respective scores of 23.150 and 18.550.

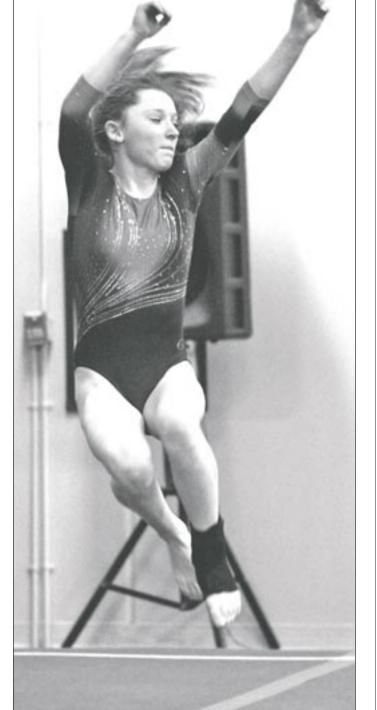

The Panther JV also fell 126.400-85.700 at New Prague. Orr placed third in the all-around with a 24.35.

Boys' hoop splits a pair

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor

A 63-50 win at Mound Westonka last week snapped a three-game losing streak for the Glencoe-Silver Lake boys' basketball team. However, the Panthers could only manage a split for the week after losing 72-71 at Rockford.

GSL held a 44-36 halftime lead against the Rockets on Friday, Jan. 27, but could not hang on in losing by a single point. Forward Kyle Christensen led all scorers with 26 points, with guards Luke Frahm and Tyler Ehrke chipping in with 12 and nine points, respectively.

The loss put a bit of a damper on GSL's 13-point win at Mound Westonka on Tuesday, Jan. 24. Individual scorers were not available.

This week concludes the first run through the Panthers' Wright County Conference West schedule. GSL traveled to the circuit's westernmost outpost with a trip to New London-Spicer on Tuesday, Jan. 31, after the Chronicle went to press.

GSL returns home on Friday to take on Dassel-Cokato, and then takes a week off before beginning the second trip through conference play on Friday, Feb. 10, at Litchfield.

Entering this week, the Panthers were 10-7 overall, but 1-4 against their WCC West competitors.

Heavy workweek for GSL/LP wrestlers

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor

In its busiest week in over a month, the Glencoe-Silver Lake/Lester Prairie wrestling team came up on the unfortunate end of the scoresheet in a trio of dual competitions last week.

On Wednesday, Jan. 25, the Panthers fell 58-21 to Dassel-Cokato. GSL grapplers claimed four victories on the evening, while having to forfeit five matches.

Tanner Chmielewski earned one of GSL/LP's three wins by fall after pinning the Chargers' Ben Zobel at 120 pounds. Kole Polzin followed that pin up with another against Kaden Schmidt at 132.

The third such win came from Paul Lemke at 285 after he pinned Blake Snyder. At 220, Aaron Castillo gritted out a 10-8 decision over Jack Zobel.

The Panthers were at Paynesville the next night, falling 66-15 to the Bulldogs. GSL/LP won three matches, while again offering up five for-

Eric Williams scored a win by fall over Paynesville's Brett Mages at 113, with Polzin winning 5-2 over Daltin Christinsen at 132.

Lemke finished up the competition with his second win by fall in as many nights after pinning Paityn Fiecke at 285.

Last week finished off in a difficult manner as GSL/LP fell 75-3 against Scott West at Jordan on Saturday, Jan.

Zach Voelz gave the Panthers an early 3-0 lead with a 4-0 win against Colton Bahr. However, the hosts won the next 13 matches - six by forfeit - to cruise to the overall victory. GSL/LP is back in action this week with road trips to Mound Westonka on Thursday and Howard Lake-Waverly-Winsted on Friday.

"It's really good to see so many girls contributing and getting on the statsheet," Jeff Monahan said. "It's really nice to see some scoring in the post as well, that really helps expand things." The Panthers began the second half of their conference schedule as New London-Spicer visited GSL on Tuesday, Jan. 31, after the Chronicle went to press. The Wildcats beat the Panthers 77-53 on Jan. 6.

"The last time we played New London-Spicer, it was our third game of the week. Add that up with a long bus trip out there and I think we just had some tired kids," Jeff Monahan said. "This time around, we are ready and the girls are really looking forward to it."

Maddie Monahan, already the program's alltime leading scorer, entered the NL-S game just three points short of 2,000 points for her high school career.

"We were trying to get her to 2,000 last week, but just not quite there," Jeff Monahan said. "It's really quite an accomplishment for her and I know her teammates are pulling for her to get there."

GSL wraps up this week with a trip to Dassel-Cokato Thursday night before taking a well-earned eight-day break from competition before hosting Litchfield on Friday, Feb. 10. "It's going to be real nice to get that break in there," Jeff Monahan said. "We can rest up and heal up a bit as well.'

With just seven games remaining until the end of the regular season, coach Monahan said the Panthers will be continuing to work on their defense in the time between now and the playoffs.

"Defense, and the No. 1 thing is rebounding," he said. "Good things can happen when you rebound well."

Tips for pruning trees, shrubs

Source: Beth Berlin, University of Minnesota Extension, Stearns, Benton and Morrison counties.

This winter has been a swing of temperatures and everything from well below 0°F to unseasonably warm weather. Now that February is in sight, it is time to consider pruning your trees and shrubs. An old rule of thumb was to prune in winter while the plant was dormant; well. for best results we need to be a bit more specific than that. When to prune depends on the species, but for most, late winter into early spring is the best time to prune.

Pruning near the end of the dormant season has several advantages, including: limited time remaining before the tree or shrub will begin its spring growth and healing process; avoiding certain diseases and pests, and providing easier sight and access without deciduous foliage.

Oak wilt can be a devastating disease and continues to spread throughout Minnesota and, therefore, oak trees should not be pruned during April, May, or June. If an oak tree is damaged or wounded during this time period, it is best to mask the cut with a wound dressing material to help minimize the attraction of pests that may spread the disease.

Fruit trees such as apples, crabapples, mountain ash, hawthorns, and cotoneaster shrubs should be pruned in February through early April. This reduces the chance of the bacterial disease fireblight and infection from occurring. Pruning in fall or early winter may cause drying out and die-back at the pruning sites.

Trees with sap will "bleed" during late winter or early spring pruning. Although it may look alarming, this does not cause harm to the tree.

Farm Notes

By Karen Johnson

One option with these types of trees or shrubs such as maples, boxelders, birch, and walnut or butternut, is to prune them after their leaves are fully developed in late spring or early summer. However, never remove more than one-quarter of the live

Early spring blooming trees and shrubs such as forsythia, flowering plum, lilac, azalea. chokeberry, chokecherry and flowering crab, should not be pruned in the late winter or early spring. Instead, these early bloomers should be pruned after they have finished blooming. If they are pruned at any other time, once the flower buds are set, you will be pruning off next spring's

Once you've determined the best timing to prune your trees or shrubs, it is important to know how to properly prune. First, it is critical to have the proper tool for the job, and ensure the pruner, lopper, or saw is sharp. Know the limitation of the tool, and use the proper sized pruner, or lopper, or instead use a saw.

Second, determine what branches should be pruned. Consider on young trees to remove: branch stubs, rubbing branches, water sprouts, sucker growth, closely spaced, and weak or narrow crotched branches. On established trees, the three most common types of pruning are: crown thinning, selectively removing branches, specifically the weak, in the crown to promote air movement; Crown raising, removing the lower branches to provide more clearance for mowing, sidewalks, streets, etc.; and crown reduction, removing some of the large branches at the top of the tree to reduce its height. This is not topping the tree because the branch is removed directly above the lateral branches. This form of pruning should only be done when absolutely

In regards to pruning shrubs, up to one-third of the oldest, damaged, thickest stems or trunks should be pruned right slightly above the ground. This technique will revitalize the plant and encourage new growth from the roots. Hedge pruning needs to be done often. After the hedge has reached the desired size, prune back the six to eight inches of new growth. This form of pruning should be done in spring and again in mid-summer to give the hedge a dense and attractive appearance.

Remember that late winter and early spring are the best times to prune many of your trees and shrubs. Do your research, have the proper tools, and be careful. For more information on pruning visit http://www.extension.umn.ed u/garden/ and search for "pruning."

Pastor's Corner

Pastor Allan Reed Immanuel Lutheran Church, Brownton

"[St. Paul wrote] I planted the seed, Apollos watered it, but God made it grow." (1Corinthians 3:6) an man be a co-worker with God? We are incapable of coming to faith in Jesus Christ by our own reason or strength. Neither can we create faith in another person. As Scripture points out, it is the Holy Spirit who, through the Gospel, kindles faith in cold hearts so Jesus is professed as the Savior. Human effort is totally ruled out.

Yet the faithful have work to do. Paul told his readers that he, as the pioneer missionary, sowed the seed of God's Word. After him others, like Apollos, did the irrigating. Christ called them to this work. Paul, as he did for the Corinthians, clarifies for us teachings of the Bible, thus helping us to distinguish between sin and grace, law and gospel. But all the while it was God who made the seed of faith grow into a harvest of faithful service.

God extends to us a partnership by calling us to proclaim His Gospel, to teach it, and to live it in our daily lives. What a privilege to be "God's fellow workers" (2Corinthians 6:1)!
