

A most needed victory

By Tom Carothers
 Sports Editor

A rare Monday night game against the Wright County Conference West co-leaders proved to be just what the Glencoe-Silver Lake boys' basketball team needed to cure what was ailing them.

The Panthers, who entered the evening on a four-game losing streak and had lost their past two contests against New London-Spicer and Dassel-Cokato by double digits, overcame a 15-point first half deficit to defeat Rockford 79-78 and improve to 6-15 on the season.

"It feels great," guard Teddy Petersen said. "The last few weeks have been really tough on us. We've had a lot of downs and it's just nice to get an up here. Maybe it'll get us rolling a bit."

Petersen led the Panthers with 25 points in the game, sinking five three-pointers and drawing comparisons to Golden State Warriors star guard Stephen Curry from his coach, Robb DeCorsey.

"Teddy was fantastic tonight," DeCorsey said. "But overall, you have to hand it to our kids – they really stepped up in the second half. They needed to close out and win a game like this."

As triumphant as the contest finished, it sure didn't start that way.

Early on, Rockford appeared to want no part of a repeat performance of its nail-biting three-point win that began GSL's recent skid on Friday, Jan. 22. The Rockets took off and had a double-digit lead within the contest's first seven minutes. While the Panthers battled back to close the cap midway through the frame, Rockford surged again to hold a 13-point lead at 48-35 as the halftime buzzer sounded.

"I did not think we could come back the way we were playing in the first half," DeCorsey said. "But the kids responded and were heading back out on the court telling one another 'Come on, let's go.'"

Petersen spearheaded the comeback effort early in the stanza, draining a pair of three pointers and then sinking a trio of free throws to help bring GSL within three points at 54-51 after four minutes had elapsed.

Forward Jacob Popelka, Tyler Ehrke and fellow guard Nick Schmidt got into the scoring act from there to knot

The Glencoe-Silver Lake dance team had its best outing of the year at the Section 3AA meet on Saturday, Jan. 30. It was the final competitive routine of the season for the Synergy, who finished 12th overall in the high kick category at the meet. GSL did not compete in the jazz category.

Synergy dancers finish with a flourish

The competitive season came to a close for the Glencoe-Silver Lake dance team as the Synergy put on their best effort for the Section 3AA meet at Mound Westonka on Saturday, Jan. 30.

"We ended with our highest scores and highest placing over the past two seasons," coach Bertina Miller said. "We also received our first 7 from a judge, which is really awesome seeing as the teams that made it to state were primarily 7/8's with some 9's."

Miller noted that during the season, the Synergy had been receiving "primarily 4's/5's with a few 6's."

GSL finished 12th overall with a total of 48 ranking points in the high kick category, coming in ahead of New Ulm (49 points), Mayer Lutheran/Watertown (54) and Jordan (60).

Mound Westonka took the top spot in both high kick as well as jazz.

The Synergy did not compete in the jazz category.

"It was a great way to end our season and it motivated the girls to make some plans for next season," Miller said. "However, we will greatly miss our two seniors Shelby (Clouse) and Emily (Oberlin). Our next year's seniors have huge shoes to fill."

Christensen returns to GSL girls' hoopsters

By Tom Carothers

A split of last week's pair of games has the Glencoe-Silver Lake girls' basketball team entering February with a 10-9 overall record.

Even better news is that the Panthers are also entering their final seven-game stretch of the regular season with the services of forward Zoe Christensen.

Christensen made her season debut in a 46-43 win over visiting Dassel-Cokato on Friday, Jan. 29, scoring six points with five rebounds in 17 minutes of play.

"We had her out there a little longer than we would've liked," coach Zach Otto-Fisher said. "But it was good to have her back and she was so happy to be back. It's been a haul for her."

The victory halted a two-game losing streak and prevented GSL from dropping below .500 for the first time since mid-December.

"It was a good confidence building win for the girls," Otto-Fisher said.

The Monahan sisters, Mac and Maddie, led the Panthers with 12 and 11 points, respectively. Maddie Monahan had seven rebounds with five assists and five steals.

Forward Maddy Kalenberg hauled in seven rebounds while guard Miranda Grack posted eight points in the three-point victory.

In their final pre-Christensen contest on Tuesday, Jan. 26, GSL came up just short in a nip-and-tuck battle at New London-Spicer, falling 56-49 to the Wildcats.

"We were down three with a minute left after being down 15 in the first half," Otto-Fisher said. "We felt pretty good leaving there after getting over that early hump."

Maddie Monahan had 21 points with 10 rebounds and seven assists, while Mac Monahan had 16 points with four rebounds, three assists and three steals. Grack tallied five rebounds.

This week is a brief one for the Panthers, with just one matchup at Litchfield on Thursday, Feb. 4.

"It's nice having a week to work on fundamentals," Otto-Fisher said. "This will be a good week for the girls to regroup and get ready for the games to come."

GSL returns home to take on Watertown-Mayer on Tuesday, Feb. 9. The Panthers bested the Dragons 56-42 on Friday, Jan. 8, and lost 78-59 at W-M on Tuesday, Jan. 12.

GSL enters Thursday's game smack dab in the middle of the Wright County Conference West standings, sporting a 4-3 circuit record.

Panther matmen swept at quad

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor

The Glencoe-Silver Lake/Lester Prairie wrestling team was swept in its lone competition last week, losing a trio of matchups in the Hutchinson Quadrangular on Friday, Jan. 29 at Buffalo Lake-Hector High School.

The Panthers were defeated 48-18 by Waseca, 42-30 by Hutchinson and 43-21 by Sibley East on the night.

Sibley East took a 25-0 lead on GSL/LP before 138-pounder Aaron Donnay claimed the Panthers’ first victory by pinning Colton Harens at the one minute, 27 second mark of the match. After a Wolverines’ win at 145, Dylan Melchert gritted out a 10-9 win against Logan Tesch to make the score 28-9.

Two more Sibley East wins were countered by three GSL/LP victories. Nick Brelje won by fall at 182, defeating Paul Glisczinski at 2:52 before Tristan Weber and Peyton Sell each earned narrow wins at 195 and 220, respectively.

Weber went to overtime to defeat Cody Voigt 3-2, with Sell posting a 3-0 defeat of Christian Figueroa.

The three straight wins made the score 37-21 before Sibley East won the final match of the night to bring the count to the final 22-point spread.

GSL/LP claimed points in four matches against Waseca, the first coming from Donnay at 138, who dominated Dylan Spencer in a 21-5 technical fall at 4:00 before Andrew Harpel won by forfeit at 145. Brelje earned an 8-0 major decision against Lucas Maxon at 170 and Weber defeating Cy Kuschel 6-0 at 195.

It was a far closer contest between GSL/LP and Hutchinson, with both teams claiming a number of forfeits.

Gymnasts prepping for Section 2A meet

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor

With the Section 2A meet right around the corner, the Glencoe-Silver Lake gymnastics team had another busy stretch last week.

The Panthers hosted a triangular meet against Wright County Conference opponents Annandale and Dassel-Cokato on Tuesday, Jan. 26 and then welcomed Delano to town two nights later.

“I feel the week went really well,” coach Kim Hahn said. “(We) were really strong during both meets.”

GSL posted 120.925 points to 121.375 for Annandale and 123 for Dassel-Cokato in the Tuesday tri. Marissa Greeley and Gia Venier finished second and third, respectively in the individual all-around with scores of 31.575 and 30.975.

Greeley finished tied for first on vault with an 8.55, followed by Nichole Binder (8.425) in third and Ellie Schmidt (8.3) in fourth.

Venier took second on balance beam with a 7.475, with Greeley tied for third at 7.45. Greeley (8.375), Venier (8.275) and Binder (8.175) finished second through fourth, respectively, in floor exercise. The trio finished in the same order on uneven bars, with Greeley at 7.2, Venier at 7.0 and Binder at 6.9.

Against Delano, Venier claimed first place in the individual all-around with a 30.95 as Greeley took second at 30.6. However, the Tigers won the dual 130.95-120.55.

Delano swept four of five top positions in beam and floor competitions. Venier broke up the Tigers’ block with fourth place finishes in both, scoring an 8.2 on beam and a 7.85 on floor.

Greeley had the top event finish on the night, tying for second place on vault with an 8.55 as Schmidt tied for fifth at 8.4. Greeley (6.95) and Shawna Goettl (6.7) placed fourth and fifth, respectively on bars.

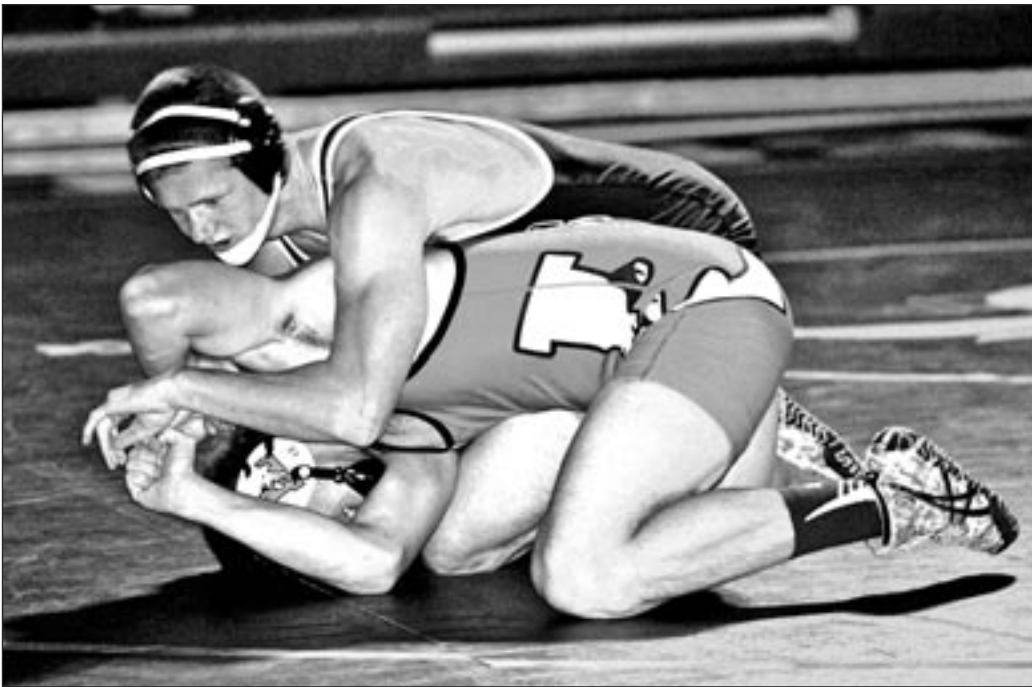

“We had strong scores on all events against Delano and looked really great out there,” Hahn said. “I hope this strength and momentum keeps up for sections.”

Binder suffered a sprained ankle in the Delano meet, but Hahn hopes to have her back in time for the sectional meet.

“We will continue to tweak our routines and work on execution, amplitude and form as well as add in some different skills if need be,” the coach said.

GSL’s final regular-season matchup on Tuesday, Feb. 2, against Orono was postponed due to the threat of inclement weather and no makeup date had been announced as the Chronicle went to press.

The Section 2A meet is scheduled for Friday, Feb. 12 at the K & G Center in Mankato.

Nick Brelje went 3-0 individually as the Glencoe-Silver Lake wrestling team competed in the Hutchinson Quadrangular on Friday, Jan. 29.

The Tigers had four forfeits go in their favor, compared to two for the Panthers.

In contested matches, Donnay won again at 138, via a 4-0 decision over Dylan Pund-sack. His win kicked off a four-match unbeaten streak for GSL/LP.

Alex Mielke topped Jordan Stenzel 4-0 at 138, Melchert bested Logan Wadsworth 11-5 at 152 and Cody Rae won by forfeit at 160.

The Panthers won three of the final five matches, but it wasn’t enough to score the team victory.

Brelje defeated Christian Kurth 6-4 at 182, Weber won by forfeit at 195 and Sell pinned Nate Dettman in 3:25 at 285 to finish off the contest.

This week, GSL/LP grapples at Canby on Friday evening. The Panther junior varsity is slated to wrestle at Dassel-Cokato the next day.

JV Boys’ Basketball

The GSL JV boys’ basketball team defeated visiting Rockford 59-55 in overtime on Monday, Feb. 1. Forward Kyle Christensen led the Panthers with 26 points, while guard Dane Schwirtz chipped in 11 points in the victory.

JV Gymnastics

The GSL junior varsity gymnastics team finished second in a Wright triangular meet against Annandale and Dassel-Cokato on Tuesday, Jan. 26. The Panthers recorded 102.95 points, with the Cardinals tallying 107.8 and D-C notching 97.5.

Breana Templin finished second in the individual all-around with a score of 26.45, with Amber Orr taking fifth with 23.45.

Amanda Anderson was third on floor exercise with a 7.5, with Templin in fifth at 7.25; Templin was also second on balance beam with a 7.25. Ellie Schmidt was second on uneven bars with a 5.5, with Orr and Erica Hecksel tying for fifth at 4.7.

Against Delano on Thursday, Jan. 28, GSL recorded 99.6 points to 119.4 for the Tigers. Jessica Brusven was the Panthers’ top scorer in the individual all-around, taking sixth with a 23.55. Hecksel had GSL’s top individual event finish, scoring a 5.45 to tie for fifth on bars.

JV Girls’ Basketball

The GSL girls’ basketball team lost both of its games last week, falling 36-32 to New London-Spicer on Tuesday, Jan. 26 and 40-38 to Dassel-Cokato on Friday, Jan. 29.

Guards Allison Kettner and Olivia Lemke scored 11 and eight points, respectively, against NL-S. Guard Mickalyn Frahm notched 13 points against D-C, with Lemke recording 12 points.

the score at 63-all before forward Jacob Litzau hit a free throw to give the hosts their first lead at 64-63 with just over six minutes to play.

Rockford regained a five point edge from there, but the Panthers roared back to tie the score at 77-all on Petersen’s final three-pointer of the evening.

The Rockets took their final lead with a free throw on the ensuing possession, but forward Alex Schrader’s layup off a Petersen drive-and-pass with nine seconds to go proved to be the decisive tally. Two timeouts later under the Rockford basket, guard Mason Ahlbrecht ensured the Rockets could not launch their final shot attempt; the wayward basketball was corralled by Litzau as time expired with GSL jubilantly recording the upset.

“I do think that the last time we played (Rockford) when we were down 7-8 points late and then came back and had a chance to tie at the end showed us that we can stick with these guys,” Petersen said. “This is the first step to getting back to where we need to be for the playoffs.”

Guard Luke Frahm scored 14 points and Popelka tallying 10 points in the Panthers’ top win of the year to date.

Now, GSL – 4-6 in WCC West play – has an opportunity to go on a winning streak with a Friday home game against Litchfield.

The Panthers mauled the Dragons 54-32 in their previous meeting at Litchfield on Friday, Jan. 8.

Pastor Ronald Mathison
First Ev. Lutheran Church, Glencoe

Stand firm and hold fast to the teachings

This coming Sunday many churches will observe “Transfiguration Sunday”. We will again hear about this event from the Gospel of Luke (9:28-36). Jesus takes three of His disciples up to the mountain to pray with them. Jesus’ face changes and a heavenly light made Him look so glorious. Moses and Elijah appear and they are speaking about Jesus’ death on the cross which shall soon take place. Out of this story we learn much that is both interesting and important, even though some of the things told us here are hard to understand.

This event shows how Jesus cared for His own then, and He cares for His own today. He knows when the river of our life will encounter rapids and waterfalls, when great peril and pain are on our horizon, straining our faith and patience to the utmost.

To prepare us for that, He takes us into the holy mount of His Word to see His glory. Let us ever follow His leading. He will never fail us. He will be with us in the darkest hour and lead us to the sunshine on the other side. God bless your day.

This weekly message is contributed by the following concerned citizens and businesses who urge you to attend the church of your choice. To be added to this page, contact us at 320-864-5518.
