Matt Odegaard scored three runs and drove in another as Plato remained near the top of the Crow River Valley

League standings with a 17-2 defeat of Norwood on Sunday, June 28, at Blue Jay Stadium.

Blue Jays blast Norwood

By Tom Carothers
Sports Editor

A pair of home victories last weekend kept the Plato Blue Jays near the very top of the Crow River Valley League (CRVL) standings, as the squad posted a 7-2 record in the month of June.

The Blue Jays carry a 12-4 overall record into July and begin the month one-half game off the lead pace of Brownnton in the CRVL southern division with a 10-3 league mark.

Beaudreau's 12,
Blue Jays 4

A non-league loss to Class B Beaudreau's Saints was just the second loss of the month for Plato, who traveled to St. Cloud to take on the Saints on Friday, June 26.

Nolan Lepel drove in all four of the Blue Jays' runs on a 3-for-3 day with two singles and a double. Kyle Panning was the only other Plato player to amass more than one hit, striking two singles and scoring twice, in the five-inning defeat. Joe Nix pitched three innings and took the loss on the mound for the visitors.

Blue Jays 6,
Watertown 1

Back in their own ballpark on Saturday, June 27, the Blue Jays got back to their winning ways by means of a 6-1 defeat of Watertown.

Chris Odegaard hit a three-run home run to help make a winner of starting pitcher Adam Prehn in the five-run triumph. Prehn went all nine innings, striking out nine while scattering 10 hits and one walk.

Nix, Panning, Matt Odegaard and Lepel all had two hits apiece, with Odegaard scoring twice.

Blue Jays 17,
Norwood 2

Plato had no trouble with Norwood, the last-place team in the CRVL, when the teams met on Sunday, June 28.

The Blue Jays got out to a 3-0 first inning lead and almost seemed to be angered by the Indians' audacity to post a run in the top of the second by answering that tally with eight of their own in the bottom of the frame en route to a 17-2 win.

Plato took advantage of six Norwood errors to score their bevy of runs on just nine hits.

Bruins still atop CRVL

By Lori Copler
Editor

The Brownnton Bruins posted yet another Crow River Valley League (CRVL) win Wednesday night, June 24, by edging Winsted in a 2-0 pitchers' duel.

The team's two aces — Dylan McCormick for Brownnton and Tony Kley for the Wildcats — battled it out on the mound as each threw complete games.

McCormick scattered three hits, fanned 13 and walked just one in his best performance yet this season, while Kley allowed two runs on five hits, struck out nine and walked two for the Wildcats.

The Bruins scored their first run in the bottom of the first on two outs. With one away, Matt Schwichtenberg hit into a fielder's choice that recorded the second out. Bryant Nordby slammed a double to plate Nordby before the Wildcats recorded the third out of the frame.

Brownnton carried a 1-0 lead into the bottom of the fifth, when a pair of doubles netted the Bruins their second run of the game. With one out, Spencer Glaeser smashed the first double. It appeared he might get left stranded out second as Kley fanned the next batter, but Schwichtenberg then connected for the second double

Fun Run finishes with a flourish

Michael Schaefer (left) and Rachel Franklin were the men's and women's winners in the Glencoe Days 2-mile Fun Run at Oak Leaf Park on Saturday, June 27. Schaefer, who competed at state for the Glencoe-Silver Lake boys' track and field team two weeks earlier, led the race from the very start and earned the overall win by a sizable margin with a time of 12 minutes, nine seconds. Franklin, a Dassel resident who says she "grew up in the area," placed high in the overall standings and first among women with a time of 17:06.

Hard luck week for Brewers

By Tom Carothers
Sports Editor

Four losses by a grand total of six runs.

Such was the fate suffered by the Glencoe Brewers last week as the squad incurred a narrow home loss to one of the top teams in the Crow River Valley League (CRVL) followed by a trio of slim setbacks at the Rosen Tournament over the weekend.

"Played three games, lost all three by close scores," coach Stephen Wiblemo said of the tournament. "Only had 10 guys there, so that hurt us, especially on offense. But we made the most of it and played some good teams."

The quartet of unfortunate outcomes dropped the Brewers to 8-11 on the season, though Glencoe entered this week holding onto fourth place in the CRVL northern division with a 6-6 league mark with a light league schedule to start the month of July.

Waconia 4, Glencoe 2

Glencoe gave CRVL North leader Waconia a tough battle when the two teams met at Vollmer Field on Tuesday, June 23, but the Brewers came up on the short end of a 4-2 loss.

Starting pitcher Colt Trebesch gave up seven hits, no walks and just two earned runs (out of four total) but was tagged with the loss.

Waconia manufactured a run in the third inning and pushed across two more in the fifth to lead 3-0 before Glencoe, who had been putting runners in scoring position all game, finally got on the board with two runs in the bottom of the seventh.

However, those runs, scored by Cole Petersen and Derek Weber, proved to be the Brewers' lone tallies of the night. Waconia netted an insurance run in the top of the eighth to put the finishing touches on their victory.

Glencoe left 10 runners on base in suffering the loss.

Raymond 5, Brewers 4

The Brewers opened tournament play on Saturday, June 27 by facing Raymond. In what proved to be the rule of the tourney and week as a whole, Glencoe fell 5-4 to the Rockets.

Jaime Paumen went all seven innings for the Brewers, striking out seven batters while giving up 10 hits and five earned runs.

Glencoe notched three hits in the game, with Brody Bratsch going 1-for-3 with two RBI to lead the offense. Derek Bratsch scored twice.

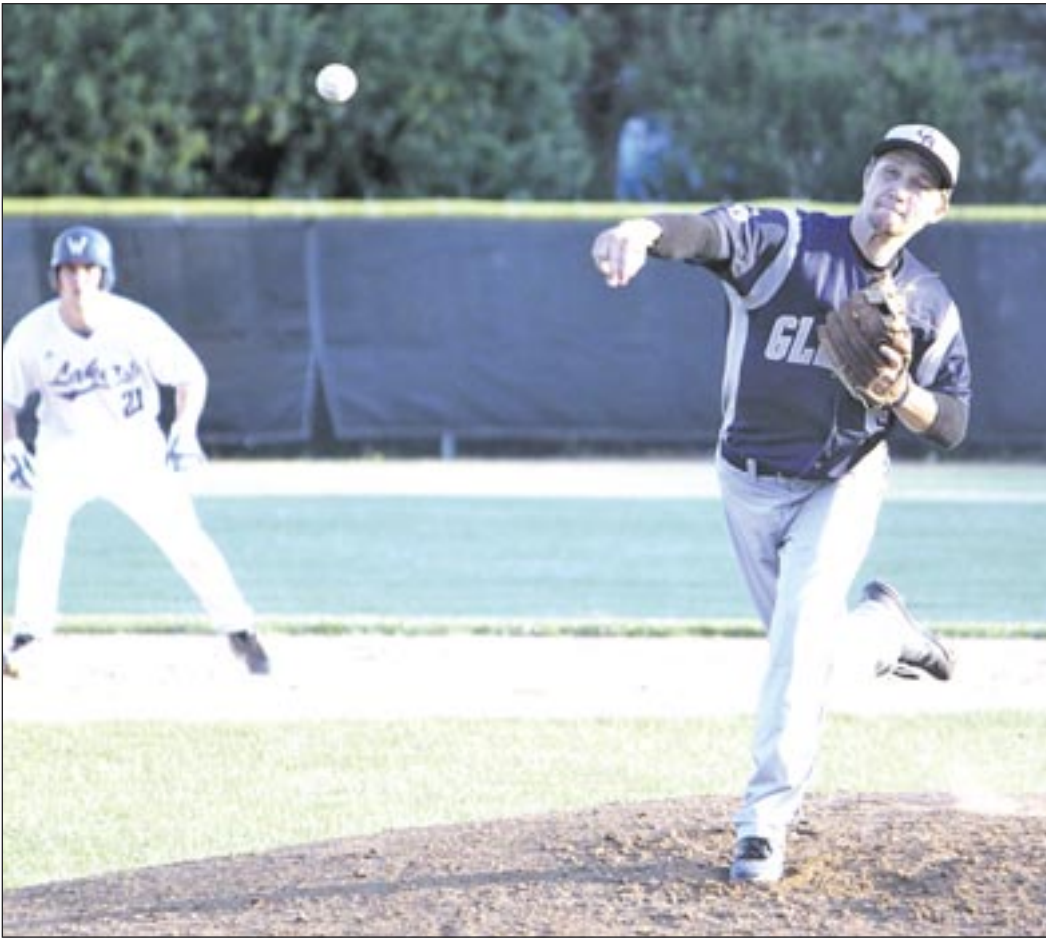

Ortonville 2, Brewers 1

Glencoe mustered up just three hits once again in its Saturday tourney follow-up, falling 2-1 to Ortonville.

Justin Erkenbrack allowed two earned runs on 11 hits and three walks in his complete-game effort, but took the loss as Colt Trebesch recorded the team's lone run in the sixth inning.

Clinton 7, Brewers 5

The Brewers’ bats awakened on Sunday, June 28, but it still was not enough to gain a win in the team’s tourney finale – a 7-5 loss to Clinton.

Erkenbrack hit a three-run home run and Josh Kraby smashed a solo shot, but the Cards hung crooked numbers on the board in three of six innings at the plate en route to the win.

Tyler Lang and Chris Odegaard both hit round-trippers in the seven-inning victory and they logged three and two RBI, respectively. Chris Odegaard scored three runs, with Tony Wischnack, Lepel and Lang each scoring twice apiece.

Wischnack cruised to the easy win by striking out 13 batters while allowing just four hits, one walk and two earned runs in a complete-game effort.

This week

Just one game on the docket for Plato this week as the Blue Jays host Cologne at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday evening.

After that, the team is off until a show-down for the CRVL South lead at Brownton on Wednesday, July 8. The Bruins won 5-2 at Blue Jay Stadium in the teams’ previous meeting on May 31.

to bring in Glaeser. Schwichtenberg was stranded as the Wildcats recorded the third out.

Glaeser had two of the Bruins’ five hits, while Schwichtenberg, Nordby and Taylor Schuette had one each. Kley had two of his team’s three hits, while Gregg Kohler had the third.

Hutch 11, Bruins 6

The Bruins’ Friday night exhibition game with Willmar was cancelled when Willmar was unable to field a team.

On Sunday, the Bruins traveled to Hutchinson for a non-league game as the Huskies began a week of events dedicated to the memory of Dave Mooney, also known as Hutchinson’s “Mr. Baseball” for his contributions to the sport.

The Huskies opened the week of events with a win over the Bruins, 11-6.

The Huskies got off to an early lead with four first-inning runs on three hits and an error. Brownton scored two runs in the second, both unearned, to cut the Hutchinson lead to 4-2.

But the Huskies came right back with a four-run fourth inning to boost its lead to 8-2.

Brownton had its own four-run rally in the eighth, with Lucas Doelger and Seth Schuette driving in runs, while one scored on a wild pitch. A three-run homer by the Huskies’ Jake Wendland in the eighth finished out Hutchinson’s scoring for the afternoon.

The Huskies had 13 hits to the Bruins’ five. Wendland paced the Huskies with a 4-for-5 performance that netted 4 RBI, while Seth Schuette had two hits for the Bruins.

Seth Schuette also was tagged for the loss for Brownton. In a five-inning pitching start, he gave up eight runs, six earned, on 10 hits as he struck out one, walked one and beamed two. Schwichtenberg threw the final three innings, giving up three earned runs on three hits as he struck out two and walked one.

Jayden Juergensen earned the win for Hutch, giving up two runs on two hits as he walked two in a three-inning start. Mitchell Kurth threw four innings, giving up no runs as he allowed two hits, struck out four and walked two. Mike Kobow tossed the final two innings, allowing four runs on one hit as he walked five, struck out one and hit one.

The Bruins hosted Hamburg Tuesday in a make-up game, and will host the Gaylord Islanders tonight (Wednesday) at 7:30 p.m. in a non-league game. They return to CRVL play Sunday when they host the Carver Black Sox at 6 p.m.

Brownton is now 10-2 in the Bruins and continues to lead the South Division. The Bruins are 12-3 overall.

The generosity of summer

Summer is upon us. The trees have leafed out, the grass is growing too fast to keep up with and the crops seem to be growing an inch a day. Nature is flourishing all around us. The Farmer's Market next to my house is open each week and fresh vegetables are already being harvested and sold. While most of us are still working every day, the pace of life seems to be a bit lazier and relaxed. Young people and children are out of school and our community pools are busy and filled with the shouts and laughter of summer vacation. The weather has been pleasant, and except for a bumper crop of mosquitos and gnats in the early morning and early evening we can all enjoy being outside. Summer is indeed a generous time when God's gift of nature seems to be flourishing everywhere we look.

In this time of joyous abundance it is easy to forget that not all of us are doing well. Amidst thoughts of vacations, lazy evenings in the out of doors and stolen moments in the sun it is hard to remember that there are those among us who struggle to keep going. Some of our neighbors struggle to put food on the table, others wrestle with the devastating effects of illness, and still other families try to resolve seemingly insurmountable problems. There are those among us who feel alone and abandoned. Perhaps this time of God's generous gift of summer abundance could be transformed into a season of generous recognition of the needs of others.

Our local food shelves still are in need of food to share with our hungry neighbors, our sick brothers and sisters and those confined to their homes or long-term care facilities could perhaps use a visit, and those we meet in the streets are perhaps waiting for someone to greet them and make them feel welcome. As the generosity of summer blooms around us let us follow nature and bring mercy, kindness and generosity to those in need. May this time of God's gifts make us a sign of God's providence in our communities.
