With four wins over its final five regular-season matchups, the Glencoe VFW Post 5102 baseball team is locked and loaded for the playoffs, which begin this week.

Four victories against neighboring opponents were only mildly tarnished by a 5-4 loss at Maple Plain on Monday, July 6.

"I would have said before last night we have been playing really good ball, so hopefully it was just a little bump in the road and we will be ready to go on Thursday," coach Dave Sell said regarding Monday's final-inning setback in relation to the opening of the subdistrict tournament.

Before hitting the "bump in the road," Glencoe rolled through four victories buoyed by a quartet of complete-game pitching performances from Peyton Sell, Taylor Schauer, Mitchell Boesche and Luke Frahm.

Sell got the ball rolling in a 9-3 defeat of the Hutchinson 16-year-olds on Tuesday, July 7. Boesche, Alex Troska and Nick Schmidt each had two hits, with Carson Streich and Cameron Chap scoring two runs apiece.

Schauer helped make it a Hutch sweep in a dominating 11-1 five-inning win over the Tigers on Thursday, July 9. Boesche and Troska again had two hits each.

Saturday, July 11, was very good to Glencoe as Boesche and Frahm each went the distance in respective 3-0 and 11-6 triumphs against Norwood at Vollmer Field.

In Game One, Boesche was perfect at the plate, going 3-3,

Bruins edge Plato 3-2, fall short to Carver 4-3

By Lori Cople

Fans can always expect a good game when the Plato Blue Jays and Brownnton Bruins meet up on the field, and they got their money's worth Wednesday, July 8, at Barney Tadsen Field in Brownnton.

The Bruins scored two runs in the first inning, which were tied up by Plato in the fifth, before Brownnton finally scored the winning run in the seventh for a 3-2 victory.

In the bottom of the first, the Bruins' Ryan Grams doubled with one out, and was joined on base by Matt Schwichtenberg, who walked. Bryant Nordby singled to score Grams. Schwichtenberg reached third on a base hit by Deryk Randt, and scored on Mason Goettl's base hit.

The Bruins' lead held until the top of the fifth, when an error and a wild pitch put Nolan Lepel on second base with no outs. Mitchell Pinske ran for Lepel and scored on a double by Ben Slater. Tony Beringer's sacrifice bunt moved Slater to third. Slater scooted home on Brian "Boomer" Graupmann's sacrifice fly to center field.

The two runs knotted the score at 2-2, which held until the bottom of the seventh. The Bruins' Chad Genz led off with a single, and Jaden Katzenmeyer came in to run. A walk by Spencer Glaeser moved Katzenmeyer to second base, from where he scored on a single by Schwichtenberg with two outs to give the Bruins a 3-2 lead and, eventually, the win.

Grams hurled a complete game win for Brownnton, giving up two runs on five hits as he struck out four and walked one.

Adam Prehn threw 6-2/3 innings for Plato before being relieved by Cody Hallahan. Prehn was tagged with the loss, giving up three runs on seven hits as he struck out five and walked two. Hallahan struck out three of the six batters he faced in the final 1-1/3 innings.

Randt had two of Brownnton's eight hits, while Glaeser, Grams, Schwichtenberg, Nordby, Goettl and Genz had one each.

Chris Odegaard had two of Plato's five hits, with Lepel, Slater and Graupmann contributing one each.

Carver 4, Bruins 3

Down 4-0 going into the bottom of the ninth, the Bruins tried to rally against Carver Sunday afternoon but fell to the Black Sox 4-3.

The Sox scored their first run in the bottom of the second as back-to-back singles by Josh Mensch and Anthony Grass put two runners on base. A sacrifice bunt by David Dolan moved the runners up, and Mensch was able to score on a sacrifice fly by Ross Tichy.

A run in the third put Carver ahead 2-0. Brett Nelson singled, advanced on a base hit by Stuart Mars and scored on a single by Adam Fredericks.

Carver added two insurance runs in the sixth, with Dolan, who doubled, and Tichy, who singled, scoring on singles by Dustin Brockoff and Nelson.

The Black Sox took their 4-0 lead into the bottom of the ninth. With one out, Grams walked and Schwichtenberg singled to put runners on base. Carver recorded the second out, but then allowed a single to Nick Heller to load the bases. Randt tripled to bring all three runners home and set himself up in position to score the tying run. Goettl got on base with a walk, but Genz' fly ball to left field was caught for the final out, and the Bruins were left on the short end of a 4-3 score.

Each pitcher threw complete games. Josh Wendlandt, hurling for Brownnton, gave up four runs on 12 hits. He struck out three and walked none. Andrew Weber, throwing for Carver, gave up three runs on six hits as he struck out seven and walked three.

Grams, Schwichtenberg, Nordby, Heller, Randt and Genz each had one hit for the Bruins. Mars, Mensch and Nelson each had two hits for Carver, while Weber, Fredericks, Grass, Dolan, Tichy and Brockoff each contributed one.

The Bruins have a full week of baseball, starting tonight at Green Isle. On Friday, they host neighboring Glencoe for fan appreciation night at Barney Tadsen Field. They host Norwood Sunday at 2 p.m., and have a makeup game scheduled at Young America Tuesday evening, July 21.

It's distirct playoff time for Tanner Rosckes (pictured) and his Plato American Legion Post 641 teammates. Plato opens the playoffs with a 1:30 p.m. game against Zumbrota-Mazeppa in Lonsdale on Saturday.

Legion seeded second for third district playoffs

By Tom Carothers
Sports Editor

The Plato American Legion Post 641 baseball team went 3-2 in the final week of its regular season and earned the No. 2 seed for the upcoming Third District, Division II playoffs.

Plato finished the pre-post-season schedule with a 12-6 overall record, 9-3 in league play and is slated to open districts against Zumbrota-Mazeppa at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in Lonsdale.

After taking a doubleheader against Mayer by scores of 5-3 and 6-1 on Wednesday, July 15, Plato bested Norwood 6-3 two nights later to clinch at least the second district seed.

However, a two-game battle for the top seed against Woodbury on Saturday, July 18, went the way of the metro suburbanites with Plato falling 5-2 and 5-4.

"We've played some very good defense and have had very good pitching," coach Jeff Cummings said. "Our hitting has been spotty and our success in the districts will come from how well we hit the ball."

Plato's pitching in the final week was highlighted by Jacob Popelka's start in the second game of Wednesday's doubleheader as well as Mitchell Pinske's complete-game victory on Saturday.

With the lightning-quick regular season now in the books, Plato now prepares for the bevy of postseason contests that now beckon as long as the team keeps winning.

Whether Plato wins or loses its Saturday opener, it will play later in the day against either Watertown or Sibley East in either Lonsdale or Montgomery.

A defeat of Zumbrota-Mazeppa sends Plato to Montgomery to play the winner of the Watertown/Sibley East contest. An opening loss keeps Plato in Lonsdale to play the Watertown/Sibley East loser. Either game is scheduled to commence at 6:30 p.m.

Blue Jays split weekly set

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor
The Plato Blue Jays narrowly missed out on a chance to catch the Brown-ton Bruins atop the Crow River Valley League (CRVL) standings after falling 3-2 at Brownton on Wednesday, July 8.
However, the Blue Jays stayed right on the Bruins’ tail as both teams met with opposing outcomes in their respective weekend follow ups.
Plato did its part to stay just one game off Brown-ton’s lead pace in the CRVL South by topping New Germany 7-2 at Blue Jay Stadium on Saturday, July 18 before the Bruins 4-3 decision at Carver the next day.

Bruins 3, Plato 2
Host Brownton set out to a 2-0 first-inning lead in the taut division battle, before Plato knotted the count at 2-all in the top of the fifth inning.
Ben Slater plated Mitchell Pinske with the Blue Jays’ first run of the game on an RBI double, before Slater himself was driven home on a sacrifice fly by Brian Graupmann to tie the game into the seventh inning.

Brownton broke the deadlock with what became the game-winning tally on a single, a walk and another single to emerge with the one-run victory and regular-season sweep.
Starting pitcher Adam Prehn took the loss after allowing seven hits, two walks and three earned runs in 6-2/3 innings on the mound. He struck out five.
Plato 7, D’men 2
It took a little while, but the Blue Jays put away a pesky New Germany side in their lone weekend contest.
The Dutchmen held a 2-1 lead on the hosts after three innings of play, with Plato knotting the game in the fourth and eventually taking the lead and game with five runs over the final three innings.
Chris Odegaard swung the big bat for the hosts, mashing a pair of home runs, with Kyle Panning also launching a solo round tripper in the five-run victory. Odegaard and Panning each accounted for a pair of runs on the day.

Starting pitcher Brian Graupmann earned the win with six innings of work, allowing six hits, one walk and two earned runs with five strikeouts. Chris and Matt Odegaard pitched two and one shutout innings, respectively, to finish out the win.
Plato has a three-game week on tap, beginning with a trip to Norwood on Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m. The Indians currently reside in the CRVL cellar with a 1-15 league mark.
Following that game, the Blue Jays return to Plato for their final two home games of the regular season this weekend.
Young America comes calling on Saturday, with Carver visiting on Sunday. First pitch for both games is 2 p.m.
Plato, 14-5 overall, begins this week with a 12-4 mark in the CRVL North — one game back of Brownton and Green Isle, both of whom are 13-3 in league play.

Brewers take two, lose two

By Tom Carothers Sports Editor
The Glencoe Brewers snapped a six-game losing streak with a pair of week-end wins to keep hopes of a .500 regular-season finish within sight.
After dropping a pair of mid-week games to Jordan and Winsted, the Brewers picked up road victories at Mayer and St. Boni to give the team a 10-13 overall record heading into the final six games of the pre-playoff schedule.
Glencoe dropped a 5-1 decision at Jordan on Tuesday, July 7 as the hosts scored all their runs in the first inning at the Mini Met. Josh Kraby drove in Alex Romano with the Brewers’ lone run of the game in the third inning. Glencoe out-hit Jordan 7-6 for the game.
The Brewers suffered the most lopsided loss of the six-game skid in a 10-4 loss to visiting Winsted on Wednesday, July 8.
The Wildcats, who are nipping at Waconia’s heels atop the Crow River Valley League (CRVL) northern division, scored in five of the first six innings, recording 10 runs on 10 hits. Each team was tagged with three errors in the contest.
Glencoe recorded a pair of runs in both the second and fifth frames, with Jacob Kraft, Cole Petersen, Derek Weber and Kraby crossing the plate for the home team.
The Brewers put that loss in the rearview mirror two days later with an 11-4 win at Mayer on Saturday, July 11.

Starting pitcher Derek Bratsch went eight innings for the victory, allowing four hits, four walks and three earned runs while striking out five. Brody Bratsch, Gannon Jordahl and Derek Bratsch each notched two RBI in the contest.
Glencoe capped off the weekend in fine style with a 6-2 win at St. Boni on Sunday, July 12. The Brewers broke open a close game with a three-run seventh inning en route to the win.
Brody Bratsch went 3-for-4 with three RBI, while Colt Trebesch scored twice. Starting pitcher John Thell earned the win with six innings of work, giving up seven hits with no walks on five strikeouts.
With the 2-2 set of games, Glencoe brought an 8-7 record in CRVL play into this week. The Brewers are holding onto fourth place in the CRVL’s northern division, 3.5 games off the lead.
Glencoe begins its final six-game stretch at Cologne on Wednesday night before traveling to CRVL South leader Brownton on Friday night. First pitch for both games is 7:30 p.m.
The Brewers travel to New Germany for a 2 p.m. game on Sunday before hosting their final regular-season game at 7:30 p.m. next Tuesday versus Gaylord.

while also recording the shutout on the mound. Spencer Lepel, Chap and Boesche accounted for Glencoe’s three runs.
Game Two was more of a slugfest, with Glencoe bouncing back from a 3-0 first-inning deficit to win by five runs. Chap gave the home side the lead for good with a three-run single in a five-run second inning. Hunter Glaeser and Troska each went 2-for-2, with Lepel scoring two runs.
The 4-1 stretch gave Glencoe a 12-3 record heading into playoffs. Dave Sell said that team will be really looking to get the bats going as subdistrict play begins at 1 p.m. Thursday against New Ulm in Hutchinson.
“Our pitching has really been our best part of our game,” he said. “Defense has stepped up but still need to improve our hitting. We have shown that we can hit, now we just have to do it on a regular basis.”

Public Works Director Schreifels presented three quotes for the removal of the basement foundation, sidewalk area, garage floor and water and sewer disconnect at 1814 Technology Lane.Ken's Excavation provided the low quote of $2290.00.

cept low quote of Ken's Excavation.
Councilor Dietz seconded. All members present voted in favor.

Public Works Director Schreifels addressed the council concerning the quotes for water service at the campground in Oak Leaf Park. After reviewing the approved quote of Ferguson Waterworks in was determined that the quote was incomplete. It was rebid and Henry's Waterworks was the low quote in the amount of $4,954.71. It was recommended to the council to reject the Ferguson Waterworks quote and award the quote to Henry's Waterworks.

Discussion led to a motion to reject the Ferguson quote previously along Highway 212 that were removed during construction of the

The Light and Power Commission would have to reimburse the State for this amount. Instead MNDOT will allow the City to put new plantings in the 212 corridor.

Kahnke Brothers is the only quote obtained as the MNDOT specifications are very stringent and most landscapers will not bid. $4,412.25 was quoted for the cemetery retaining wall. $5,780.00 quoted for the area between the retaining wall and Go For It Gas. These two areas will be planted this spring. The balance of the plantings will be done in the fall and the quote will be brought before the council for consideration at that time. The Light and Power Commission will reimburse the City for the cost of the project.

prove the quote of Kahnke Brothers by Councilor Perschau with a second by Councilor Ziemer. All members present voted in favor.

presented a summary and adoption schedule of the 2015 Building Code
